16TH YEAR. NO. 54.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1900.

TWO CENTS

AN INCREASE OF OVER A MILLION

Decennial Land Appraiser Adam
Has Completed His Work

REPORT TO AUDITOR ADAMS

The City Will Derive No Benefit
From It Until the Year

THE CITY'S TOTAL VALUATION

Decennial Land Appraiser G. M. Adam has finished his work and sent his report to Auditor Adams. The report will show the new valuation to be $4,408,881, an increase of $1,820,421 over the valuation of 1890.

The auditor reported that the work of Appraiser Adam was satisfactory, but that he would take some time to look over it.

There is probably no person in the city except Mr. Adam who knows just what a big job it is to take the land appraisement of the city and he has done the work in a remarkably short time.

His field book was too heavy and unhandy to carry with him and he simply took a pass book with him, and would put down every piece of property as he went along, the name and size and in the evening he would transfer it to his field book.

After he had finished making the appraisement of 7,800 pieces of property in the city he was compelled to transfer the whole business to another book for use of the auditor.

In addition to this he had to notify 7,800 people of their valuation. He was expected to do the work in four months, but it was more than mortal man could do. Adam worked night and day at the job to get it finished, and did his work well.

The persons who have grievances will meet with the decennial board in the city soon, but the total figures of Mr. Adam will stand, as when the board take anything off one piece of property they must make it up on another.

The tax valuation of the city at present is $3,331,980, and with a levy of 12 mills it is not enough to pay the expenses incurred in running the city department.

The personal tax as shown by the assessor's books this year is $399,520, and this would make the total valuation at the present time $4,808,401.

But the council will not be able to get at the new valuation until 1902. The personal tax for this year is placed on the auditor's books this year and the city does not receive anything from it until 1901.

The decennial land appraisement for 1900 will not go on the auditor's books until next year and the city will receive nothing from it until February, 1902.

The personal taxes change every year, and after the assessors finish their work for 1901, what it shows then will be put on the auditor's books and the city will then begin to draw on the new valuation.

It is expected that the city will then show a total valuation of at least $5,000,000.

With the present levy of 12 mills

this would give the city $60,000 per year for running expenses. They now receive a little over $36,000 per year.

THE SITUATION IS DESPERATE.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Russia has instructed her minister to leave Peking under safe escort.

Will be Resumed Tomorrow at the Young Men's Christian Association.

During the heated season the Sunday afternoon meetings for men at the Y. M. C. A. have been suspended. Tomorrow at 4 p. m., however, they are to be resumed. Dr. A. B. Marshall, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. J. A. Platts, former general secretary of the association, and others will speak. Professor Laughlin will lead the singing.

The religious work committee is making a strong effort to make the meetings during the coming season the best in the association's history, and all men are especially invited to attend this first service.

FINISHED GRADING.

The County Has Finished Its Part of the Grading on Cemetery Hill.

Contractor John Neeson has finished the county's part of the grading on Cemetery Hill, immediately in front of Riverview cemetery. It is understood that the grading to be done by the city, commencing at Wall street and ending at the cemetery gate, will be commenced by Contractors Rinehart and Ryan next Monday week, August 20.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

The Remains of the Late Mrs. Will Pope Will be Laid to Rest in Riverview.

The remains of Mrs. Will J. Pope arrived in the city this morning at 10:05 o'clock and can be viewed this evening between 7 and 9 o'clock at the Pope residence in Thompson place.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Taken to Massillon.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Sheriff Noragon this morning conveyed Thos. J. Crawford, of this city, to the state hospital at Massillon.

SMALL BOYS WERE RUN IN

They Were In Swimming When Officer Morris Captured the Whole Bunch.

THEY ALL FACED THE MAYOR

Who Gave Them a Severe Talking to and Then Assessed Them $5 60.

THEY PROMISED TO PAY

Yesterday afternoon Officer Morris made a raid on the small boys who have been bathing in the river near the flint mill. He got eight youngsters and they were badly frightened.

The boys have indulged in the practice of swimming in the vicinity of the Ohio shore for several months, arrayed in nature's garments, and recently have become a condemned nuisance.

They were arraigned before Mayor Davidson yesterday evening, who had a heart-to-heart talk with the juvenile offenders, and when he was through there was no misunderstanding as to his meaning.

The mayor assessed a fine of $5 60 on the whole bunch, which will be divided up among them. They promised to pay, and were allowed to go.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

The Conference of the North Ohio A. M. E. Church Will be Held Last of September.

The ministers and delegates of the North Ohio conference of the A. M. E. church will be held at Oxford, Butler county, O., during the last of the month of September, 1900. Rev. Benjamin Madison Carson, pastor of the local A. M. E. church, will then have served his full five years in the East Liverpool and Wellsville churches, and will not be returned to this charge, five years being the limit of consecutive service in this conference. Rev. Carson and family do not know where their lot will be cast. A great mass of white and colored citizens wish them well wherever they go. Pastor Carson has made thousands of warm friends in this section.

MUSTN'T INTERFERE.

Judge Hole Issued a Restraining Order at Salem Yesterday Afternoon.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—In Salem in chambers yesterday afternoon Judge Hole issued an order restricting Wm. G. Newhouse from interfering with the rights of Edward W. Powers and Charles C. Herriott.

The plaintiff operates a mine of the Elkrun Mining company which underlies a 193-acre farm belonging to Newhouse.

The plaintiff's claim rights to drive over certain parts of the surface and brought suit against Newhouse when he interfered by putting up fences and gates.

Filed a Claim.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Dora Faloon filed a claim for $1,500 in probate court today against the estate of the late Wm. Faloon, of Salineville.

The amount is due her as administrator, and Judge Boone set the hearing for September 20.

MILLER IS HOME.

BROUGHT THOMAS HINDLE TO THIS CITY.

An Effort is Being Made to Settle the Case And It May be Successful.

Constable Miller arrived in the city last evening from Coshocton having in custody Thomas Hindle, who is wanted for embezzlement.

The charge was made by H. J. Windram, for whom Hindle worked as a collector. He was living in Wellsville for some time and recently went to Coshocton, where he was arrested last Tuesday.

An effort is being made today by the parents of Hindle to settle the case, they offering to pay $125, which will cover the loss sustained by Windram.

This sum, together with the costs in the case, will amount to in the neighborhood of $145. Hindle's parents live in the country and were not aware of their son's trouble until his arrest.

An effort was made to rob Constable Miller of the credit of working up the case, but the only connection Constable Thorne, of Wellsville, had with the matter was that Miller placed a warrant in his hands for the arrest of the man when he was supposed to be in Wellsville.

AGAINST A SNAG.

What a Trenton Potter Says of the Situation in That City.

A Trenton correspondent of the Commoner and Glassworker has the following in regard to the pottery situation in that city:

"As was reported last week, the national committee were up against a snag, and as the days go by it now looks as though we will have no uniform list here, for it is a hard proposition that the national committee are tackling through the jiggermen not being in the Brotherhood and the manufacturers will have nothing to do with the list until all branches of the trade are satisfied to accept it."

"Those who have been working hard for the list to go into effect are getting almost discouraged at the way it now stands, for the members won't attend the meetings and face the problem which means their bread and butter, for it is just this, if the list don't go into effect now it will never go into effect, for it is now or never, for it puts to the test every man's unionism and now is the time to show whether there are as many true unionists in Trenton as boasted."

Paddy Struck Out.

Paddy Burns, the umbrella vender who was run in Tuesday, was turned loose this morning by Mayor Huxley and told to "hike" out of the city. He hit the rails, going towards Alliance. They may have him up there.—Salem Herald.

Paddy is well known in this city and should reach here before long.

He Can Sell It.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—John A. Greenmyer, administrator of the estate of Mary Jennings, was authorized to sell an interest in a lot in the Cherry Valley Iron company's addition to Leetonia.

—Mrs. W. H. McConnell has returned to her home in East Liverpool.—Beaver Falls Tribune.

PROFESSOR HALL HAS RESIGNED

He Goes to Mansfield to Accept a Position as Instructor in Science.

HE IS A GOOD TEACHER

And the Mansfield People Are to Be Congratulated in Securing His Services.

HAS A HOST OF FRIENDS

Prof. H. E. Hall, teacher of science in the East Liverpool high school, has resigned his position and will accept a similar position in the Mansfield school at a salary of $100 per month.

Prof. Hall has long been recognized as one of the best teachers in the city schools and they will lose a good instructor when they lose him.

He was liked by pupils and teachers, and has many warm friends in the city who will wish for him the success he so richly deserves. He had been science teacher here for two and a half years.

The Mansfield offer came to the professor unsolicited and is a worthy compliment to the ability of one who has labored so hard to bring his department of the city schools up to its present high standard.

He was always a hard worker, and in leaving the city will take with him the best feeling, and the people interested in the public schools of the city will unite in saying that Liverpool's loss is Mansfield's gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their future home in Mansfield.

THE VETERANS.

The Old Boys Had an Oh-Be-Joyful Time in the Town of Rochester.

The members of Company F, 46th Pa. volunteers, had an oh-be-joyful reunion at the home of Comrade Thomas Matthews, Rochester, Pa., the other day. Comrade Noah Frederick states that there were 18 of the original members of the company present, and four recruits, or men who came into the regiment after its formation. The veterans enjoyed themselves as only old soldiers can, men who have camped together for years, borne the heat and burden of the march, and faced together the dangers of death and wounds on the battle field, and possibly shared the horrors of a southern prison pen.

The next reunion of the company will be held in East Liverpool, and the survivors anticipate a delightful time.

He Got Ten Days.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Nathan McKee, of Salem, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery, was given 10 days in the county jail by Judge Boone.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Marietta Ebersole returned to her home in Carrollton this morning after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Manley, Sixth street.

—Miss Ella Grim, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Messenger, left yesterday afternoon for Hudson to visit her mother.

Afternoon.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—In Salem in chambers yesterday afternoon Judge Hole issued an order restricting Wm. G. Newhouse from interfering with the rights of Edward W. Powers and Charles C. Herriott.

The plaintiff operates a mine of the Elkrun Mining company which underlies a 193-acre farm belonging to Newhouse.

The plaintiff's claim rights to drive over certain parts of the surface and brought suit against Newhouse when he interfered by putting up fences and gates.

Filed a Claim.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Dora Faloon filed a claim for $1,500 in probate court today against the estate of the late Wm. Faloon, of Salineville.

The amount is due her as administrator, and Judge Boone set the hearing for September 20.

BROUGHT THOMAS HINDLE TO
THIS CITY.

An Effort is Being Made to Settle the Case And It May be Successful.

Constable Miller arrived in the city last evening from Coshocton having in custody Thomas Hindle, who is wanted for embezzlement.

The charge was made by H. J. Windram, for whom Hindle worked as a collector. He was living in Wellsville for some time and recently went to Coshocton, where he was arrested last Tuesday.

An effort is being made today by the parents of Hindle to settle the case, they offering to pay $125, which will cover the loss sustained by Windram.

This sum, together with the costs in the case, will amount to in the neighborhood of $145. Hindle's parents live in the country and were not aware of their son's trouble until his arrest.

An effort was made to rob Constable Miller of the credit of working up the case, but the only connection Constable Thorne, of Wellsville, had with the matter was that Miller placed a warrant in his hands for the arrest of the man when he was supposed to be in Wellsville.

AGAINST A SNAG.

What a Trenton Potter Says of the Situation in That City.

A Trenton correspondent of the Commoner and Glassworker has the following in regard to the pottery situation in that city:

"As was reported last week, the national committee were up against a snag, and as the days go by it now looks as though we will have no uniform list here, for it is a hard proposition that the national committee are tackling through the jiggermen not being in the Brotherhood and the manufacturers will have nothing to do with the list until all branches of the trade are satisfied to accept it.

"Those who have been working hard for the list to go into effect are getting almost discouraged at the way it now stands, for the members won't attend the meetings and face the problem which means their bread and butter, for it is just this, if the list don't go into effect now it will never go into effect, for it is now or never, for it puts to the test every man's unionism and now is the time to show whether there are as many true unionists in Trenton as boasted.

Paddy Struck Out.

Paddy Burns, the umbrella vender who was run in Tuesday, was turned loose this morning by Mayor Huxley and told to "hike" out of the city. He hit the rails, going towards Alliance. They may have him up there.—Salem Herald.

Paddy is well known in this city and should reach here before long.

He Can Sell It.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—John A. Greenamyer, administrator of the estate of Mary Jennings, was authorized to sell an interest in a lot in the Cherry Valley Iron company's addition to Leetonia.

—Mrs. W. H. McConnell has returned to her home in East Liverpool.—Beaver Falls Tribune.

He Goes to Mansfield to Accept a Position as Instructor In Science.

And the Mansfield People Are to
Be Congratulated In Securing
His Services.

HAS A HOST OF FRIENDS

Prof. H. E. Hall, teacher of science in the East Liverpool high school, has resigned his position and will accept a similar position in the Mansfield school at a salary of $100 per month.

Prof. Hall has long been recognized as one of the best teachers in the city schools and they will lose a good instructor when they lose him.

He was liked by pupils and teachers, and has many warm friends in the city who will wish for him the success he so richly deserves. He had been science teacher here for two and a half years.

The Mansfield offer came to the professor unsolicited and is a worthy compliment to the ability of one who has labored so hard to bring his department of the city schools up to its present high standard.

He was always a hard worker, and in leaving the city will take with him the best feeling, and the people interested in the public schools of the city will unite in saying that Liverpool's loss is Mansfield's gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their future home in Mansfield.

THE VETERANS.

The Old Boys Had an Oh-Be-Joyful
Time in the Town of Rochester.

The members of Company F, 46th Pa. volunteers, had an oh-be-joyful reunion at the home of Comrade Thomas Matthews, Rochester, Pa., the other day. Comrade Noah Frederick states that there were 18 of the original members of the company present, and four recruits, or men who came into the regiment after its formation. The veterans enjoyed themselves as only old soldiers can, men who have camped together for years, borne the heat and burden of the march, and faced together the dangers of death and wounds on the battle field, and possibly shared the horrors of a southern prison pen.

The next reunion of the company will be held in East Liverpool, and the survivors anticipate a delightful time.

He Got Ten Days.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Nathan McKee, of Salem, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery, was given 10 days in the county jail by Judge Boone.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Marietta Ebersole returned to her home in Carrollton this morning after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Manley, Sixth street.

FAMINE'S LEGACY TO THE WORLD

Half a Million of Orphans Are Urgently In Need of Immediate Help

DIRECT NEWS FROM INDIA

Prospects Are Now Somewhat
Brighter, as the Blessed Rain
Is Falling.

HELP UNTIL THE CROPS COME

News by cable from India's viceroy, the governor of Bombay, and other officials, from American missionaries and from newspaper correspondents, report a general rainfall in the famine-stricken districts and prospects brighter than at any time for the past two years.

This means that the gaunt, woeful, hideous figure of famine is being literally drowned. River beds, which for 24 months have been bared to the sky and baked by the sun till rock-hard, are now gradually softening into their natural muddiness. Streams are manifesting signs of life. The water in the few wells which were not drained by the long drought, are growing deeper, and fields, farms, meadows, grazing grounds, garden plots, in fact the whole parched earth, is giving promise of generous fertility, as in the years gone by.

But these are, after all, only signs and promises; which, while restoring hope to the hearts of the stricken millions, must not be taken as meaning that the famine is at an end. Famine may be dying, but she is not yet dead. She still stalks abroad in all the western and central provinces, and for at least three months to come she will continue her deadly work.

As the cause of the awful distress and desolation was lack of rain, it will take a very long, steady rain to restore the ground to a condition rich enough to yield. With the exception of a one-hour shower on July 20 of last year, the present rainfall is the first western India has known for four and twenty months. Hence, not until rain has fallen continuously for weeks and weeks, will the ground be sufficiently soaked and softened to assure the raising of a crop.

Moreover, millions of head of cattle; indeed, 90 per cent of all the cattle have died for want of fodder, and farmers will remain tied hand and foot till government supplies new live stock to replace the old, whose bones lie scattered the country over.

Therefore, desperate distress still exists. Utter desolation is still the lot of millions. If the government were now to withdraw its aid, shut up the relief works and poor houses, if American contributions were now to cease and missionaries to stop their work, ten million homeless, helpless people would be in imminent danger of starving to death.

Famine has written her will on the face of the land. She is leaving Christendom a legacy in the form of hundreds of thousands of homeless, helpless orphans.

The million men and women, who, after indescribable suffering, have succumbed since the famine began, not only to starvation, but to fever, plague and cholera besides, have left fully half a million fatherless and motherless children. When the government closes its relief work, its poor houses, sending millions of absolutely penniless people to their desolate homes to begin life's struggle over again, what is to become of the parentless, ownerless children. Who is to shelter them, clothe, feed, instruct them and fit them for lives of usefulness?

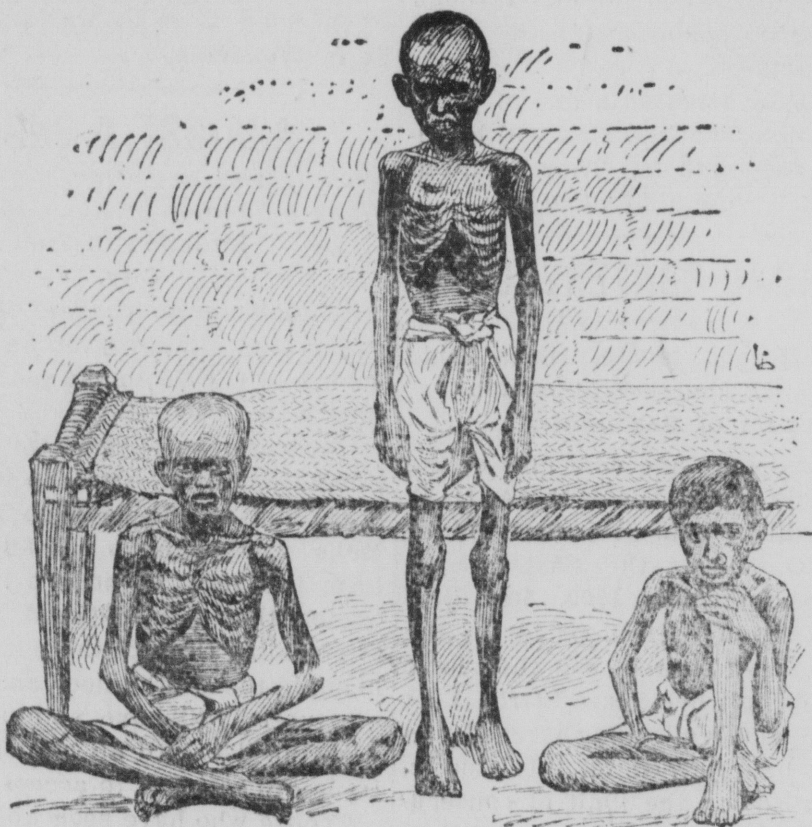

I have myself just returned from

India, and I can truthfully write that of all the sad sights to be seen in the famine district, the most pitiable is the starving children. Not a few, but tens of thousands, are wandering along the highways, waifs of a desert country, living drift-chips on a shoreless sea. Their mothers and fathers have died of starvation, and now they have not a soul in the world to turn to, no kith, no kin, not a single heart among their own people to look after them.

It is in the rescue of these orphans, waifs from the highway of death itself, that the missionaries devote a large part of their working hours. Once inside a mission compound, the poor little starveling, if care and food have not come too late, is supported by funds sent to the missionaries by the American people.

Among the many starving orphan children gathered in from the fields by Dr. Taylor and his wife, missionaries at Ahmedabad, there came one little girl who insisted on entering the house. She came into the library, and after a brief look about lapsed in her own tongue, "Please, may I die here?" and then threw herself down on the floor and went to sleep. It is gratifying to add that the long sleep and the hot milk afterward given to this child saved her from death and she was added to the fold of orphans in Dr. Taylor's care.

Even in the streets of Bombay there are hundreds of famine children wandering about. With sunken eyes, hollow cheeks and indented temples, with weary, weak, skeleton legs, they totter, by the dozen, in the footsteps of the European, crying "Salam, Sahib," which is their way of saying "Peace to you." Then slapping their hollow and naked stomachs to emphasize their need of food, they continue their pious supplications, begging for enough food to keep them alive just another hour.

Sometimes a mother accosts one, a babe in her arms, trying its little best to get food from the dry, parched breast—and this mother also entreates you, saying: "Give us something to eat, and God will bless you with many children."

The group of waifs about her cling as if by instinct to her scant, ragged skirt, as if they felt that since this woman is mother to the babe she will act also as a kind mother to all who snuggle up to her.

Saving the children, in famine time, is one of the most encouraging phases of relief work, while to see children starve, to know that they, the helpless ones, cannot be helped, that they must die by inches for want of food, is a condition of affairs that wrings the heart.

Thousands of these orphans are now in the hands of American missionaries, having been plucked by them from the jaws of death, but they must soon be turned out to starve unless the missionaries receive the means to purchase food for them.

Whence is to come the money for the support of these helpless little ones? A plan for the solution of this problem has been formed by Dr.

He says: "Living expenses in India are light. The expense of caring for the 500,000 orphans, while stupendous in the aggregate, is yet easily within reach when considered one by one. It is not to be expected that any one person should assume the whole responsibility, yet every one can do something."

"Five cents for every working day, or 30 cents a week will clothe, feed, shelter and instruct a child, and there are but few people who cannot undertake the responsibility for one child, giving part themselves and collecting the balance from friends and neighbors. To every person so contributing will be given the name and address of the orphan for whom they have assumed responsibility, and once every three months they will receive an English letter from India, either from the child or from its teacher, reporting the progress it is making. I am sure the charitable, sympathetic people of our prosperous country will prove equal to the occasion and tens of thousands of famine waifs will be saved for lives of Christian influence."

"The Christian Herald, Bible House, New York, will receive all pledges and moneys for famine orphans, and will cable the money to India free of all expense, and weekly reports of pledges will be cabled at the same time. This course will enable the missionaries to take, promptly and quickly, as many children as there are pledges."

"If it be desired that the children be received in the orphanages of any particular denomination, and this wish is clearly expressed at the time when the pledge is made, it will be conscientiously respected; or if preference for either sex is expressed, such preference will also be faithfully respected; and every pledge for one year, and every remittance, however small, towards orphan support will be promptly acknowledged in public print.

RESOLUTION

Declaring it Necessary to Improve Trentvale Street from Sheridan Avenue to the Stone Culvert at the Debee Bros.' Plan of Lots.

RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring), that it is necessary (and its intention is hereby declared), to improve Trentvale street between the points above named, in the following manner:

The curbing shall be set along the east curbline from Sheridan Avenue to the north line of Peak's addition and a twelve (12) foot roadway shall be paved along next the curb, and from the north line of Peak's addition to the stone culvert twelve (12) feet of the west half of the roadway shall be paved.

The bricks used must be the best quality of roadway paving bricks set on edge. The work must be done in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer and under his supervision.

The cost and expense of the said improvement, except so much thereof as the law requires to be placed on the general tax list, with such further sums as Council may elect to collect by general taxation, shall be levied and assessed on the lots and lands abutting and bounding thereon and on such contiguous, adjacent, and other benefited lots and lands as Council shall specify in the ordinance authorizing the said improvement.

Bonds will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance.

The assessments therefor shall be made in five (5) annual installments and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed.

And the City Clerk is hereby instructed to have this resolution published, and the City Marshal is hereby authorized and instructed to serve the proper notices on the proper persons, and make return as required by law.

Passed this 1st day of August, 1900.

FAMINE'S LEGACY TO THE WORLD

Urgently In Need of Immediate Help

DIRECT NEWS FROM INDIA

Prospects Are Now Somewhat
Is Falling.

HELP UNTIL THE CROPS COME

News by cable from India's viceroy, the governor of Bombay, and other officials, from American missionaries and from newspaper correspondents, report a general rainfall in the famine-stricken districts and prospects brighter than at any time for the past two years.

This means that the gaunt, woeful, hideous figure of famine is being literally drowned. River beds, which for 24 months have been bared to the sky and baked by the sun till rock-hard, are now gradually softening into their natural muddiness. Streams are manifesting signs of life. The water in the few wells which were not drained by the long drought, are growing deeper, and fields, farms, meadows, grazing grounds, garden plots, in fact the whole parched earth, is giving promise of generous fertility, as in the years gone by.

But these are, after all, only signs and promises; which, while restoring hope to the hearts of the stricken millions, must not be taken as meaning that the famine is at an end. Famine may be dying, but she is not yet dead. She still stalks abroad in all the western and central provinces, and for at least three months to come she will continue her deadly work.

As the cause of the awful distress and desolation was lack of rain, it will take a very long, steady rain to restore the ground to a condition rich enough to yield. With the exception of a one-hour shower on July 20 of last year, the present rainfall is the first western India has known for four and twenty months. Hence, not until rain has fallen continuously for weeks and weeks, will the ground be sufficiently soaked and softened to assure the raising of a crop.

Moreover, millions of head of cattle; indeed, 90 per cent of all the cattle have died for want of fodder, and farmers will remain tied hand and foot till government supplies new live stock to replace the old, whose bones lie scattered the country over.

Therefore, desperate distress still exists. Utter desolation is still the lot of millions. If the government were now to withdraw its aid, shut up the relief works and poor houses, if American contributions were now to cease and missionaries to stop their work, ten million homeless, helpless people would be in imminent danger of starving to death.

Famine has written her will on the face of the land. She is leaving Christendom a legacy in the form of hundreds of thousands of homeless, helpless orphans.

The million men and women, who, after indescribable suffering, have succumbed since the famine began, not only to starvation, but to fever, plague and cholera besides, have left fully half a million fatherless and motherless children. When the government closes its relief work, its poor houses, sending millions of absolutely penniless people to their desolate homes to begin life's struggle over again, what is to become of the parentless, ownerless children. Who is to shelter them, clothe, feed, instruct them and fit them for lives of usefulness?

India, and I can truthfully write that of all the sad sights to be seen in the famine district, the most pitiable is the starving children. Not a few, but tens of thousands, are wandering along the highways, waifs of a desert country, living drift-chips on a shoreless sea. Their mothers and fathers have died of starvation, and now they have not a soul in the world to turn to, no kith, no kin, not a single heart among their own people to look after them.

It is in the rescue of these orphans, waifs from the highway of death itself, that the missionaries devote a large part of their working hours. Once inside a mission compound, the poor little starveling, if care and food have not come too late, is supported by funds sent to the missionaries by the American people.

Among the many starving orphan children gathered in from the fields by Dr. Taylor and his wife, missionaries at Ahmedabad, there came one little girl who insisted on entering the house. She came into the library, and after a brief look about lapsed in her own tongue, "Please, may I die here?" and then threw herself down on the floor and went to sleep. It is gratifying to add that the long sleep and the hot milk afterward given to this child saved her from death and she was added to the fold of orphans in Dr. Taylor's care.

Even in the streets of Bombay there are hundreds of famine children wandering about. With sunken eyes, hollow cheeks and indented temples, with weary, weak, skeleton legs, they totter, by the dozen, in the footsteps of the European, crying "Salam, Sahib," which is their way of saying "Peace to you." Then slapping their hollow and naked stomachs to emphasize their need of food, they continue their pious supplications, begging for enough food to keep them alive just another hour.

Sometimes a mother accosts one, a babe in her arms, trying its little best to get food from the dry, parched breast—and this mother also entreats you, saying: "Give us something to eat, and God will bless you with many children."

The group of waifs about her cling as if by instinct to her scant, ragged skirt, as if they felt that since this woman is mother to the babe she will act also as a kind mother to all who snuggle up to her.

Saving the children, in famine time, is one of the most encouraging phases of relief work, while to see children starve, to know that they, the helpless ones, cannot be helped, that they must die by inches for want of food, is a condition of affairs that wrings the heart.

Thousands of these orphans are now in the hands of American missionaries, having been plucked by them from the jaws of death, but they must soon be turned out to starve unless the missionaries receive the means to purchase food for them.

Whence is to come the money for the support of these helpless little ones? A plan for the solution of this problem has been formed by Dr.

"Five cents for every working day, or 30 cents a week will clothe, feed, shelter and instruct a child, and there are but few people who cannot undertake the responsibility for one child, giving part themselves and collecting the balance from friends and neighbors. To every person so contributing will be given the name and address of the orphan for whom they have assumed responsibility, and once every three months they will receive an English letter from India, either from the child or from its teacher, reporting the progress it is making. I am sure the charitable, sympathetic people of our prosperous country will prove equal to the occasion and tens of thousands of famine waifs will be saved for lives of Christian influence."

"The Christian Herald, Bible House, New York, will receive all pledges and moneys for famine orphans, and will cable the money to India free of all expense, and weekly reports of pledges will be cabled at the same time. This course will enable the missionaries to take, promptly and quickly, as many children as there are pledges."

"If it be desired that the children be received in the orphanages of any particular denomination, and this wish is clearly expressed at the time when the pledge is made, it will be conscientiously respected; or if preference for either sex is expressed, such preference will also be faithfully respected; and every pledge for one year, and every remittance, however small, towards orphan support will be promptly acknowledged in public print.

Declaring it Necessary to Improve Trentvale Street from Sheridan Avenue to the Stone Culvert at the Debee Bros.' Plan of Lots.

RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring), that it is necessary (and its intention is hereby declared), to improve Trentvale street between the points above named, in the following manner:

The curbing shall be set along the east curbline from Sheridan Avenue to the north line of Peak's addition and a twelve (12) foot roadway shall be paved along next the curb, and from the north line of Peak's addition to the stone culvert twelve (12) feet of the west half of the roadway shall be paved.

The bricks used must be the best quality of roadway paving bricks set on edge. The work must be done in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer and under his supervision.

The cost and expense of the said improvement, except so much thereof as the law requires to be placed on the general tax list, with such further sums as Council may elect to collect by general taxation, shall be levied and assessed on the lots and lands abutting and bounding thereon and on such contiguous, adjacent, and other benefited lots and lands as Council shall specify in the ordinance authorizing the said improvement.

Bonds will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance.

The assessments therefor shall be made in five (5) annual installments and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed.

And the City Clerk is hereby instructed to have this resolution published, and the City Marshal is hereby authorized and instructed to serve the proper notices on the proper persons, and make return as required by law.

Passed this 1st day of August, 1900.

Eleven Persons Died in New York City.

NINE DEATHS IN CITY OF CHICAGO.

Five Persons Expired in Philadelphia
and There Were 20 Prostrations — One Death in Pittsburg and Seven Prostra-
tions.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—One death from
heat here; 7 prostrations.

New York, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons
died here from excessive heat. The infant mortality is very great. Horses
are perishing all over the city. The thermometer reached 94 degrees.

Milwaukee, Aug. 11. — Two deaths
from heat here.

Louisville, Aug. 11.—Several pro-
strations here.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Nine deaths and 15 prostrations resulted from the excessive heat here. The thermometer went as high as 95 degrees.

CRISIS IN WAGE DISPUTE.

President Shaffer Issued a Call for a General Conference in the City of Detroit.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—The wage dispute between the Amalgamated association and the American Tinplate company and Republic Steel and Iron company has reached a crisis. President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, issued a call for a meeting of the general conference committee at Detroit, Mich., August 14.

Although the constitution of the association has since 1894 provided for
the issuing of such a call, the general conference committee has never before been asked to settle a wage dispute. When asked why he had adopted this course of action, President Shaffer replied that he was simply enforcing the laws of the organization.

Mrs. John Davis and Others Testified in Powers' Trial.

Georgetown, Aug. 11.—Mrs. John
Davis, the wife of one of the men charged with being an accessory to the Goebel assassination, was a witness
introduced by the defense in the trial
of former Secretary of State Powers.

Caleb Powers, she said, boarded at her house. John Powers was also there January 25. She testified that the latter was ill in his room at her house that day and did not leave his room after 11 o'clock that day. This was in contradiction of the testimony of Robert Noakes, who told of an alleged conversation with John Powers,
in which he said the latter told him
"to stay close to the building as Goebel

Solomon Wilder, of Whitley county, testified that Robert Noakes was at Corbin in March and asked him not to tell anybody he was in town, as he might be arrested in connection with the assassination conspiracy. Wilder declared Noakes said he believed Caleb Powers innocent. According to the witness, the members of the Noakes military company at Corbin,
instead of being desperadoes, as Noakes
had alleged, were mostly good men.

On cross-examination Wilder admitted that a number of Noakes' company had been tried for various crimes, murder being the charge in several instances.

The defense then asked to be allowed to offer as evidence the act of the legislature appropriating $100,000 for the apprehension and prosecution of the assassin of William Goebel. No objection was offered and the act
was made a part of the testimony.

Henry Hazelwood, a lawyer, of Laurel county, testified that he heard
James Sparks, of London, say that Goebel would be killed and Taylor
would pardon the man who did it;
that the pardon was already written
name of the man who did it. Sparks testified for the defense several days
ago, and at the time denied having made the statement.

Chief of Police Zach Lushy was called and contradicted the statement of Rev. Stamper, who had denied making certain remarks in regard to the truth of Wharton Golden's statements. Other witnesses also testified.

Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—The last day's session of the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Association
of American was held here. Hartford, Conn., was selected as the place
for the next annual meeting. The following officers were elected: President,

Rev. D. McGillicuddy, Worcester, Mass.;
first vice president, J. Washington
Logue, Philadelphia; second vice president, Hon. J. Walter Gibbons, Chicago; third vice president, Leonora M.
Lake, St. Louis; general treasurer,
Rev. John Curren, Scranton, Pa.;
general secretary, Rev. A. P. Doyle,
New York.

FORAKER'S OHIO DATE.

Senator Scott Arranged With Him to Speak September 8 in His Home State.

New York, Aug. 11.—The principal
visitor at Republican national headquarters was Hon. J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, who has been for some weeks
down in New Jersey. Senator Scott
arranged to have Senator Foraker
make a speech in Ohio on September 8, Baltimore on September 11 and at the convention of the state Republicans in New Jersey on September 13.
He will also make other speeches. Senator Foraker said:

"I have not been in Ohio for some time, but I have no doubt that the Republicans are making good progress
there."

Senator Scott said that William J.
Youngs, the secretary of Governor
Roosevelt, had submitted a tentative
plan for the governor's campaign
speaking, but that he had not looked it over. No arrangement further than that he would speak in Chicago on Labor day, and then go west, remaining until October 15, has been agreed on.

POPULIST COMMITTEE CALLED.

Members Say Stevenson Without Doubt
Will Be Nominated.

Chicago, Aug. 11. — The executive committee of the Populist party has decided to call a meeting of the national committee of that party to be held in this city August 27.

The committee issued the following
address:

"The executive committee of the People's party takes this method of expressing to you its gratification on account of the absolute harmony which exists between the allied parties. There is no discord anywhere. On the contrary, a commendable spirit of rivalry
exists between the Democrats, Populists and Silver Republicans as to which shall make the best record in support of our unrivaled leader, William J. Bryan.

"We have not felt authorized to fill
the vacancy on our ticket occasioned
by the declination of the Hon. Charles
A. Towne and called the national committee to meet in this city August 27.

"We trust there may be a full attendance of the committee. Meanwhile rest assured that no discord will grow
out of the vice presidential situation."

Members of the committee stated
that Mr. Stevenson would without doubt be endorsed by the full committee when it meets.

It was decided that branch national headquarters be established in Chicago, the main national headquarters
to remain in Lincoln. Committeeman Eugene Smith, of Chicago, will be in charge here.

CONVENTION DATE CHANGED.

Democratic Clubs' Meeting Postponed
Until October.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The coming convention of Democratic clubs, which was originally set for September 8 at Indianapolis, has been postponed until October 3. W. R. Hearst, president of the National association, announced
the postponement and explained that it was due to the desire of the national leaders as well as the state leaders
of Indiana. Mr. Bryan urged that the date be changed and the suggestion
was approved by Adlai E. Stevenson.
Delegates to the number of 40,000 are expected to attend.

ARMOR PLATE BIDS OPENED.

Carnegie and Bethlehem Companies Put
in Same Bids for Half Each.

Washington, Aug. 11.—At the opening of bids at the navy department for armor plate, the Bethlehem and Carnegie companies submitted identical
bids, each for about 18,200 tons of the 36,000 tons advertised for at $490 for
the thick armor and $411.20 for the thin.

The only other bid was from the Midvale steel company, which proposed to furnish the whole of the armor, without charging any royalties, on a sliding scale from $438 up. This company is unwilling to contract for less than 20,000 tons.

Anxiety For Census Operators.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Apprehension
is felt at the census office for the safety of Charles M. Robinson and
W. G. Pine-Coffin, the census supervisors for Alaska, who, with several
June 9 for St. Michael and have not since been heard from.

Every day adds to the list of deaths
attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these deaths might be written down as due to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs
of digestion and nutrition, that "weak"
heart, "weak" lungs, "weak" nerves and other forms of physical deterioration
having their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep
each organ of the body well nourished,
is the man who is least liable to collapse
under the sudden weakness of some vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently
cures diseases of the stomach and organs
of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

writes Mr. J. F. Kidd, of Farmleysville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and my suffering was very great. My pulse was weak, breath short and I had severe pains in back, head and legs. Had palpitation of heart, and for eleven months I was not able to do a day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. R. V.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

VICTIMS OF THE HEAT.

Eleven Persons Died in New York City.

and There Were 20 Prostrations—One Death in Pittsburg and Seven Prostra-
tions.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—One death from
heat here; 7 prostrations.

New York, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons
died here from excessive heat. The
are perishing all over the city. The thermometer reached 94 degrees.

Milwaukee, Aug. 11.—Two deaths
from heat here.

Louisville, Aug. 11.—Several pro-
strations here.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Nine deaths and 15 prostrations resulted from the excessive heat here. The thermometer
went as high as 95 degrees.

CRISIS IN WAGE DISPUTE.

President Shaffer Issued a Call for a General Conference in the City of Detroit.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—The wage dispute between the Amalgamated association and the American Tinplate company and Republic Steel and Iron
company has reached a crisis. President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, issued a call for a meeting of the general conference committee at Detroit, Mich., August 14.

Although the constitution of the association has since 1894 provided for
the issuing of such a call, the general conference committee has never before been asked to settle a wage dispute. When asked why he had adopted this course of action, President
Shaffer replied that he was simply
enforcing the laws of the organization.

Mrs. John Davis and Others Testified in Powers' Trial.

Georgetown, Aug. 11.—Mrs. John
Davis, the wife of one of the men
charged with being an accessory to the Goebel assassination, was a witness
introduced by the defense in the trial
of former Secretary of State Powers.

Caleb Powers, she said, boarded at her house. John Powers was also
there January 25. She testified that
the latter was ill in his room at her house that day and did not leave his
room after 11 o'clock that day. This
was in contradiction of the testimony
of Robert Noakes, who told of an alleged conversation with John Powers,
in which he said the latter told him
"to stay close to the building as Goebel

Solomon Wilder, of Whitley county,
testified that Robert Noakes was at Corbin in March and asked him not
to tell anybody he was in town, as he might be arrested in connection with
the assassination conspiracy. Wilder
declared Noakes said he believed Caleb Powers innocent. According to the witness, the members of the Noakes military company at Corbin,
instead of being desperadoes, as Noakes
had alleged, were mostly good men.

On cross-examination Wilder admitted that a number of Noakes' company had been tried for various crimes,
murder being the charge in several instances.

The defense then asked to be allow-
legislature appropriating $100,000 for
the apprehension and prosecution of
the assassin of William Goebel. No
objection was offered and the act
was made a part of the testimony.

Henry Hazelwood, a lawyer, of Laurel county, testified that he heard
James Sparks, of London, say that Goebel would be killed and Taylor
would pardon the man who did it;
name of the man who did it. Sparks
testified for the defense several days
ago, and at the time denied having
made the statement.

Chief of Police Zach Lushy was called and contradicted the statement
of Rev. Stamper, who had denied making certain remarks in regard to the truth of Wharton Golden's statements. Other witnesses also testified.

Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—The last
day's session of the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Association
of American was held here. Hartford, Conn., was selected as the place
for the next annual meeting. The following officers were elected: President,

Rev. D. McGillicuddy, Worcester, Mass.;
first vice president, J. Washington
Logue, Philadelphia; second vice president, Hon. J. Walter Gibbons, Chicago; third vice president, Leonora M.
Lake, St. Louis; general treasurer,
Rev. John Curren, Scranton, Pa.;
general secretary, Rev. A. P. Doyle,
New York.

FORAKER'S OHIO DATE.

Speak September 8 in His Home State.

New York, Aug. 11.—The principal
visitor at Republican national headquarters was Hon. J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, who has been for some weeks
down in New Jersey. Senator Scott
arranged to have Senator Foraker
make a speech in Ohio on September
8, Baltimore on September 11 and at the convention of the state Republicans in New Jersey on September 13.
He will also make other speeches. Senator Foraker said:

"I have not been in Ohio for some time, but I have no doubt that the Republicans are making good progress
there."

Senator Scott said that William J.
Youngs, the secretary of Governor
Roosevelt, had submitted a tentative
plan for the governor's campaign
speaking, but that he had not looked
it over. No arrangement further than
that he would speak in Chicago on Labor day, and then go west, remaining until October 15, has been agreed on.

Members Say Stevenson Without Doubt
Will Be Nominated.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The executive committee of the Populist party has decided to call a meeting of the national committee of that party to be held in this city August 27.

The committee issued the following
address:

"The executive committee of the People's party takes this method of expressing to you its gratification on account of the absolute harmony which
exists between the allied parties. There is no discord anywhere. On the contrary, a commendable spirit of rivalry
exists between the Democrats, Popu-
lists and Silver Republicans as to
which shall make the best record in support of our unrivaled leader, William J. Bryan.

"We have not felt authorized to fill
the vacancy on our ticket occasioned
by the declination of the Hon. Charles
A. Towne and called the national committee to meet in this city August 27.

"We trust there may be a full attendance of the committee. Meanwhile
rest assured that no discord will grow
out of the vice presidential situation."

Members of the committee stated
that Mr. Stevenson would without doubt be endorsed by the full committee when it meets.

It was decided that branch national
headquarters be established in Chicago, the main national headquarters
to remain in Lincoln. Committeeman Eugene Smith, of Chicago, will be in
charge here.

CONVENTION DATE CHANGED.

Democratic Clubs' Meeting Postponed
Until October.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The coming convention of Democratic clubs, which was originally set for September 8 at Indianapolis, has been postponed until October 3. W. R. Hearst, president of the National association, announced
the postponement and explained that it was due to the desire of the national
leaders as well as the state leaders
of Indiana. Mr. Bryan urged that the date be changed and the suggestion
was approved by Adlai E. Stevenson.
Delegates to the number of 40,000 are expected to attend.

ARMOR PLATE BIDS OPENED.

in Same Bids for Half Each.

Washington, Aug. 11.—At the opening of bids at the navy department for
armor plate, the Bethlehem and Carnegie companies submitted identical
bids, each for about 18,200 tons of the 36,000 tons advertised for at $490 for
the thick armor and $411.20 for the thin.

The only other bid was from the Midvale steel company, which proposed to furnish the whole of the armor, with-
out charging any royalties, on a sliding scale from $438 up. This company is unwilling to contract for less than 20,000 tons.

Anxiety For Census Operators.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Apprehension
is felt at the census office for the safety of Charles M. Robinson and
W. G. Pine-Coffin, the census super-
June 9 for St. Michael and have not
since been heard from.

Every day adds to the list of deaths
attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these
deaths might be written down as due
to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs
of digestion and nutrition, that "weak"
heart, "weak" lungs, "weak" nerves and
other forms of physical deterioration
having their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep
each organ of the body well nourished,
is the man who is least liable to collapse
under the sudden weakness of some
vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently
cures diseases of the stomach and organs
of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of
the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

writes Mr. J. F. Kidd, of Farmleyville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and
my suffering was very great. My pulse was

CRISIS IN WAGE DISPUTE.

President Shaffer Issued a Call for a General Conference in the City of Detroit.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—The wage dispute between the Amalgamated association and the American Tinplate company and Republic Steel and Iron
company has reached a crisis. President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, issued a call for a meet-

Mrs. John Davis and Others Testified in Powers' Trial.

Georgetown, Aug. 11.—Mrs. John
Davis, the wife of one of the men
charged with being an accessory to the Goebel assassination, was a witness
introduced by the defense in the trial
of former Secretary of State Powers.

Caleb Powers, she said, boarded at

had alleged, were mostly good men.

On cross-examination Wilder admitted that a number of Noakes' company had been tried for various crimes,
murder being the charge in several instances.

The defense then asked to be allowed to offer as evidence the act of the legislature appropriating $100,000 for
the apprehension and prosecution of
the assassin of William Goebel. No
objection was offered and the act
was made a part of the testimony.

Henry Hazelwood, a lawyer, of Laurel county, testified that he heard
James Sparks, of London, say that Goebel would be killed and Taylor
would pardon the man who did it;
name of the man who did it. Sparks
testified for the defense several days
ago, and at the time denied having
made the statement.

Chief of Police Zach Lushy was called and contradicted the statement
of Rev. Stamper, who had denied making certain remarks in regard to the truth of Wharton Golden's statements. Other witnesses also testified.

Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—The last
day's session of the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Association
of America was held here. Hartford, Conn., was selected as the place
for the next annual meeting. The following officers were elected: President,

Rev. D. McGillicuddy, Worcester, Mass.;
first vice president, J. Washington
Logue, Philadelphia; second vice president, Hon. J. Walter Gibbons, Chicago; third vice president, Leonora M.
Lake, St. Louis; general treasurer,
Rev. John Curren, Scranton, Pa.;
general secretary, Rev. A. P. Doyle,
New York.

FORAKER'S OHIO DATE.

Speak September 8 in His Home State.

New York, Aug. 11.—The principal
visitor at Republican national headquarters was Hon. J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, who has been for some weeks
down in New Jersey. Senator Scott
arranged to have Senator Foraker
make a speech in Ohio on September
8, Baltimore on September 11 and at the convention of the state Republicans in New Jersey on September 13.
He will also make other speeches. Senator Foraker said:

"I have not been in Ohio for some time, but I have no doubt that the Republicans are making good progress
there."

Senator Scott said that William J.
Youngs, the secretary of Governor
Roosevelt, had submitted a tentative
plan for the governor's campaign
speaking, but that he had not looked
it over. No arrangement further than
that he would speak in Chicago on Labor day, and then go west, remaining until October 15, has been agreed on.

Members Say Stevenson Without Doubt
Will Be Nominated.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The executive committee of the Populist party has decided to call a meeting of the national committee of that party to be held in this city August 27.

The committee issued the following
address:

"The executive committee of the People's party takes this method of expressing to you its gratification on account of the absolute harmony which exists between the allied parties. There is no discord anywhere. On the contrary, a commendable spirit of rivalry
exists between the Democrats, Popu-
lists and Silver Republicans as to
which shall make the best record in
liam J. Bryan.

"We have not felt authorized to fill
the vacancy on our ticket occasioned by the declination of the Hon. Charles
A. Towne and called the national committee to meet in this city August 27.

"We trust there may be a full attendance of the committee. Meanwhile
rest assured that no discord will grow
out of the vice presidential situation."

Members of the committee stated
that Mr. Stevenson would without doubt be endorsed by the full committee when it meets.

It was decided that branch national
headquarters be established in Chicago, the main national headquarters
to remain in Lincoln. Committeeman Eugene Smith, of Chicago, will be in
charge here.

CONVENTION DATE CHANGED.

Democratic Clubs' Meeting Postponed
Until October.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The coming convention of Democratic clubs, which was originally set for September 8 at Indianapolis, has been postponed until October 3. W. R. Hearst, president of the National association, announced
the postponement and explained that it was due to the desire of the national
leaders as well as the state leaders
of Indiana. Mr. Bryan urged that the date be changed and the suggestion
was approved by Adlai E. Stevenson.
Delegates to the number of 40,000 are expected to attend.

ARMOR PLATE BIDS OPENED.

in Same Bids for Half Each.

Washington, Aug. 11.—At the opening of bids at the navy department for
armor plate, the Bethlehem and Carnegie companies submitted identical
bids, each for about 18,200 tons of the 36,000 tons advertised for at $490 for
the thick armor and $411.20 for the thin.

The only other bid was from the Midvale steel company, which proposed to furnish the whole of the armor, with-
out charging any royalties, on a sliding scale from $438 up. This company is unwilling to contract for less than 20,000 tons.

Anxiety For Census Operators.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Apprehension
is felt at the census office for the safety of Charles M. Robinson and
W. G. Pine-Coffin, the census super-
June 9 for St. Michael and have not
since been heard from.

Every day adds to the list of deaths
attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these
deaths might be written down as due
to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs
of digestion and nutrition, that "weak"
heart, "weak" lungs, "weak" nerves and
other forms of physical deterioration
having their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep
each organ of the body well nourished,
is the man who is least liable to collapse
under the sudden weakness of some
vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently
cures diseases of the stomach and organs
of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

writes Mr. J. F. Kidd, of Parmleysville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and
my suffering was very great. My pulse was weak, breath short and I had severe pains in
back, head and legs. Had palpitation of heart,
and for eleven months I was not able to do a
day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. R. V.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

GRAND ARMY.

The veterans will own Chicago from August 25 to August 31, 1900. Grand preparations have been made for their reception, care and enjoyment. Pottery at Paris.

Green Book.

One of the opportunities for self-congratulation which the Paris exposition has offered to America this year is her indubitable success in the showing that the exhibitors of the United States have made in the department of fictiles. The imitators hail from the Old World this time. Austria has made some success in following Tiffany glass, but Japan was unable to compete with Rookwood pottery. The production of new colors and glazes by the Long Island potteries and Trenton's decorated porcelain completed a collection of artistic offerings which put America away in the lead. One of the most gratifying features of the exhibit is its entire originality as compared with the decadence of the once famous European schools.

APPRAISEMENT.

Decennial Land Appraiser G. M. Adams has completed his work and made report thereof. Report appears in our columns today; read it carefully.

TRUE MANHOOD.

Gauge it right and respect accordingly. Take a man for what he is really worth from the standpoint of genuine manhood—not for the land or dollars he possesses.

THE FAMOUS TENTH.

The justly famous Tenth Pennsylvania infantry, U. S. volunteers, was represented by only the skeleton form of the old organization at the late annual encampment of the National

for 30 days.

Slightly used piano usually sold for $300.

Price $170 Cash

Including scarf, stool and cover. Also one year's tuning.

Smith & Phillips

East Liverpool, O.

Guard of Pennsylvania, very many of the old veterans refusing to re-enlist. The veterans sadly miss the presence of their lamented commander, Colonel A. L. Hawkins; peace be to his memory.

PENNA. NATIONAL GUARD.

The annual encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania was not a flattering success, judging by the tone of the daily press of the country. Water supplies were entirely inadequate, the heat was simply unendurable, and discipline seems to have been at a low ebb.

HUMANITY LOVER.

Read very carefully the letter in today's issue from the pen of Louis Klopsch about India and her 500,000 orphans—little children whom you can keep from starving to death. God will bless every giver to this holy cause. Send in your contributions at once. Help until the harvest comes.

TRUE WOMANHOOD.

If she be brazen and vile, no matter what her condition in society, she should be branded accordingly. If she possess lands and money and still be vile, the branding should only be the deeper. A true and virtuous woman, high or low, is but a little lower than the angels, and her value is far greater than gold, pearls, rubies or diamonds. We doff our hat to a true woman and despise a vile one.

GRAND ARMY.

The veterans will own Chicago from August 25 to August 31, 1900. Grand preparations have been made for their reception, care and enjoyment. It will be an event long to be remembered by citizens and soldiers alike. East Liverpool will be well represented. A special car will be provided for our use, and if one car is not enough, two cars will be provided. Mack Anderson has already quite a number of excursionists.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Will you very kindly pardon seeming neglect on our part. We have not really neglected you; but, on the contrary, have been making herculean efforts to reach you every evening with the News Review. Our circulation has very much increased during the past three weeks, and some of our newsboys or carriers have failed to do their duty properly in the way of delivery. We have discharged some of our carriers and replaced them with trustworthy and reliable lads, and you will receive your paper regularly each evening just as soon as the carriers learn their routes. Some of the old carriers are still with us, and are very faithful and reliable, and the subscribers on their special routes have no cause for complaint. In the meantime, if you miss your paper, let us know of the failure, and we will send to you by special messenger. Our telephone number, on either line, is 122. Make settlement with the boys every week, and make settlements promptly, please, as the youngsters do not desire to carry subscribers who do not pay their bills. If you desire to pay in advance, by the three months, six months or year, you can do so and receive credit therefor. There are some persons who delight in defrauding the boys; who will take one daily for a while, refuse to pay, are cut off, and then work the same dodge on another daily. Of course none of the readers of the News Review would be guilty of such petty measures. The man or woman who would defraud a newsboy, and rob him of his earnings, is just a little too mean for anything on earth, but to be used as material for filling up the garbage wagon.

Pottery at Paris.

Green Book.

One of the opportunities for self-congratulation which the Paris exposition has offered to America this year is her indubitable success in the showing that the exhibitors of the United States have made in the department of fictiles. The imitators hail from the Old World this time. Austria has made some success in following Tiffany glass, but Japan was unable to compete with Rookwood pottery. The production of new colors and glazes by the Long Island potteries and Trenton's decorated porcelain completed a collection of artistic offerings which put America away in the lead. One of the most gratifying features of the exhibit is its entire originality as compared with the decadence of the once famous European schools.

HE WORKED DESTRUCTION.

A Sample of What a Fairly Healthy Cockatoo Can Do.

A light chain securely fastened on the cockatoo's leg promised safety, but he contrived to get within reach of my new curtains and rapidly devoured some half yard or so of a hand painted border, which was the pride of my heart. Then came an interval of calm and exemplary behavior which lulled me into a false security. Cockie seemed to have but one object in life, which way to pull out all his own feathers, and by evening the dining room often looked as though a white fowl had been plucked in it.

I consulted a bird doctor, but as Cockie's health was perfectly good and his diet all that could be recommended, it was supposed he only plucked himself for want of occupation, and firewood was recommended as a substitute. This answered very well, and he spent his leisure in gnawing sticks of deal—only when no one chanced to be in the room he used to unfasten the swivel of his chain, leave it dangling on the stand and descend in search of his playthings. When the fire had not been lighted, I often found half the coals pulled out of the grate and the firewood in splinters. At last, with warmer weather, both coals and wood were removed, so the next time Master Cockie found himself short of a job he set to work on the dining room chairs, first pulled out all their bright nails and next tore holes in the leather, through which he triumphantly dragged the stuffing.

At one time he went on a visit for some weeks and ate up everything within his reach in that friendly establishment. His "bag" for one afternoon consisted of a venerable fern and a large palm, some library books, newspapers, a pack of cards and an arm-chair. And yet every one adores him, and he is the spoiled child of more than one family.—Cornhill.

Aloofness to Other Christians.

Not the least valuable result of the ecumenical conference will be a lifting up or at least a lightening of the fog of complacent ignorance with which too many among us have regarded the great bodies of evangelical Christians so far as they have found occasion to regard them at all. This attitude is unfortunate. Its unconscious superciliousness no doubt attracts to our churches some social aspirants, but it is a source of widespread and not unjustified irritation and alienation from the church. The attitude of aloofness that it has fostered has been a great injury to the work that we have to do in the Christian world. No one could have attended the sessions of this conference, no one could even have read attentively the reports of them, and still believe that the solar system revolved around the weather vane on his parish spire. It was plain that here there was neither Greek, barbarian nor Scythian, but Christ was all and in all.—Churchman.

EAST END.

ONLY A JOKE.

A Statement Made in Jest Came Near Causing Trouble for an East End Man.

A careless remark sometimes creates great sensations. Such was the case of a remark made by an East Ender yesterday.

A man employed by A. G. Chaffin, who is erecting a number of new houses in East End, went to the pipe works to get a drink, and engaged in conversation with one of the employees about the sudden disappearance by fire of great cities and buildings.

The pipe works man, who is a well known oddity, remarked in conclusion that "Before 10 o'clock tomorrow all the houses in Chaffintown will be laid in ashes."

The carpenter returned to his building and repeated the remark to Mr. Chaffin, giving the impression that it was in the nature of a threat.

Mr. Chaffin was naturally anxious, especially as he did not know who was the author of the remark, and called on Officer Hamilton, who accompanied him to the pipe works and called for the man and requested that he go with them to the office of Squire Carmen.

The author of the innocent remark, which was causing so much excitement, declared that he was only joking, but realized that if any one hearing of the remark chose to set fire to the houses it would be likely to go hard with him. But Mr. Chaffin being satisfied, the case was dismissed without further proceedings.

HAD TROUBLE

In Locating Her Husband Got Off the Train Down Town and Was Taken to Wellsville.

A Slavic woman and baby arrived in East End last night, and as she could not speak a word of English, no one could find out who she was or to whom she belonged. She had a card written in her own language, the only part of which could be understood was American Clay Manufacturing company.

She was taken to the fire station and waited there a while, and no one coming for her, some kind neighbors kept them all night.

In the morning word was sent to the American Clay plant and it was found that the newcomer was the wife of George Kohert, who was employed there.

He has been building a new house and had sent for her to come to East End. But she was delayed a day and got off at the down town station instead of East End, and then got on a car going to Wellsville, but when she showed her card she was sent back to East End.

The couple seem to be delighted at their reunion. Mr. Kohert is a good steady worker and a good citizen, and has won the respect of people in East End.

After 28 Years.

Mrs. J. M. Azdell, of Mexico, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. J. Orr, of Pennsylvania avenue. Mrs. Azdell lived in East End 35 years ago and her only former visit to her old home was 28 years ago.

Secured a Situation.

Squire Carmen has been expecting his son Earl home, but received word that he had accepted a position with G. C. Sturgis, president of the board of regents for Morgantown university.

A Lost Horse.

A stray horse was found in Ed McKinnon's garden last night and Officer Hamilton was notified. He found that it belonged to Mr. Kidder and returned it to its owner.

Gave a Party.

Suddenly Ill.

Mr. Harmon was taken suddenly ill and had to be taken to his home in Helana.

Attending a Funeral.

Rev. Green will attend the funeral of Mrs. Schaffer at Calcutta today.

Superintendent Michael Whitaker So Characterizes the Acts of Telephone Workmen.

Editor News Review—The line of the Columbiana County Telephone company runs alongside the Calcutta road. In putting up the wires they, the workmen, have deemed it necessary to destroy a good many nice trees. One tree in particular, inside the cemetery grounds, on private property, was a source of comfort and pride to myself and family. It was not only a beauty from an ornamental standpoint, but was decidedly useful. I had a talk with the foreman of the construction force respecting this tree, and he gave me the assurance, on his word of honor, that it would not be touched or interfered with, as it was not necessary that it should be. Yesterday, in my absence, in defiance of this sacred promise, the workmen, vandalls that they are, went to work and utterly ruined this tree. If the promises of the officials of this company are in line with the promises of the foreman in question, the company deserves that failure shall meet it on every hand. The only policy that one should use with fellows like the said foreman and his force, is the shot gun policy.

BRAZEN IMPUDENCE.

Superintendent Michael Whitaker So Characterizes the Acts of Telephone Workmen.

Editor News Review—The line of the Columbiana County Telephone company runs alongside the Calcutta road. In putting up the wires they,
the workmen, have deemed it necessary to destroy a good many nice trees.
One tree in particular, inside the cemetery grounds, on private property, was a source of comfort and pride to myself and family. It was not only a beauty from an ornamental standpoint, but was decidedly useful. I had a talk with the foreman of the construction force respecting this tree, and he gave me the assurance, on his word of honor, that it would not be touched or interfered with, as it was not necessary that it should be. Yesterday, in my absence, in defiance of this sacred promise, the workmen, vandalls that they are, went to work and utterly ruined this tree. If the promises of the officials of this company are in line with the promises of the foreman in question, the company deserves that failure shall meet it on every hand. The only policy that one should use with fellows like the said foreman and his force, is the shot gun policy.

Respectfully,
MICHAEL WHITAKER,
Superintendent Riverview cemetery.

HE WORKED DESTRUCTION.

A Sample of What a Fairly Healthy Cockatoo Can Do.

A light chain securely fastened on the cockatoo's leg promised safety, but he contrived to get within reach of my new curtains and rapidly devoured some half yard or so of a hand painted border, which was the pride of my heart. Then came an interval of calm and exemplary behavior which lulled me into a false security. Cockie seemed to have but one object in life, which way to pull out all his own feathers, and by evening the dining room often looked as though a white fowl had been plucked in it.

I consulted a bird doctor, but as Cockie's health was perfectly good and his diet all that could be recommended, it was supposed he only plucked himself for want of occupation, and firewood was recommended as a substitute.
This answered very well, and he spent his leisure in gnawing sticks of deal—only when no one chanced to be in the room he used to unfasten the swivel of his chain, leave it dangling on the stand and descend in search of his playthings. When the fire had not been lighted, I often found half the coals pulled out of the grate and the firewood in splinters. At last, with warmer weather, both coals and wood were removed, so the next time Master Cockie found himself short of a job he set to work on the dining room chairs, first pulled out all their bright nails and next tore holes in the leather, through which he triumphantly dragged the stuffing.

At one time he went on a visit for some weeks and ate up everything within his reach in that friendly establishment. His "bag" for one afternoon consisted of a venerable fern and a large palm, some library books, newspapers, a pack of cards and an armchair. And yet every one adores him, and he is the spoiled child of more than one family.—Cornhill.

Take a piece of good beef about five pounds in weight, tie into a neat shape with white cord, dip into pure olive oil and broil over a clear fire, turning every few seconds until all sides have been nicely browned. Place into a large stewpan and half cover with boiling water. Simmer gently one and a half hours. When the meat is half done, add a large teaspoonful of salt and two small carrots, one onion and a turnip sliced and cut into straws. Cut two potatoes into squares and add to the beef 15 minutes before dishng. When done, place the meat on a platter and stand it in the oven. Rub together one tablespoonful of butter and three tablespoonfuls of flour. Stir into the boiling stew. Season to taste. Garnish the meat with some of the vegetables and serve.

Aloofness to Other Christians.

Not the least valuable result of the ecumenical conference will be a lifting up or at least a lightening of the fog of complacent ignorance with which too many among us have regarded the great bodies of evangelical Christians so far as they have found occasion to regard them at all. This attitude is unfortunate. Its unconscious superciliousness no doubt attracts to our churches some social aspirants, but it is a source of widespread and not unjustified irritation and alienation from the church. The attitude of aloofness that it has fostered has been a great injury to the work that we have to do in the Christian world. No one could have attended the sessions of this conference, no one could even have read attentively the reports of them, and still believe that the solar system revolved around the weather vane on his parish spire. It was plain that here there was neither Greek, barbarian nor Scythian, but Christ was all and in all.—Churchman.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

ONLY A JOKE.

A Statement Made in Jest Came Near Causing Trouble for an East End Man.

A careless remark sometimes creates great sensations. Such was the case of a remark made by an East End yesterday.

A man employed by A. G. Chaffin, who is erecting a number of new houses in East End, went to the pipe works to get a drink, and engaged in conversation with one of the employes about the sudden disappearance
by fire of great cities and buildings.

The pipe works man, who is a well known oddity, remarked in conclusion that "Before 10 o'clock tomorrow all the houses in Chaffintown will be laid in ashes."

The carpenter returned to his building and repeated the remark to Mr.
Chaffin, giving the impression that it was in the nature of a threat.

Mr. Chaffin was naturally anxious, especially as he did not know who was the author of the remark, and called on Officer Hamilton, who accompanied him to the pipe works and called for the man and requested that he go with them to the office of Squire Carmen.

The author of the innocent remark, which was causing so much excitement, declared that he was only joking, but realized that if any one hearing of the remark chose to set fire to the houses it would be likely to go hard with him. But Mr. Chaffin being satisfied, the case was dismissed without further proceedings.

In Locating Her Husband Got Off the Train Down Town and Was Taken to Wellsville.

A Slavic woman and baby arrived in East End last night, and as she could not speak a word of English, no one could find out who she was or to whom she belonged. She had a card written in her own language, the only part of which could be understood was American Clay Manufacturing company.

She was taken to the fire station and waited there a while, and no one coming for her, some kind neighbors kept them all night.

In the morning word was sent to the American Clay plant and it was found that the newcomer was the wife of George Kohert, who was employed
there.

He has been building a new house and had sent for her to come to East End. But she was delayed a day and got off at the down town station instead of East End, and then got on a car going to Wellsville, but when she showed her card she was sent back to East End.

The couple seem to be delighted at their reunion. Mr. Kohert is a good steady worker and a good citizen, and has won the respect of people in East End.

REPLIED TO CONGER.

State Department Kept Contents of Note From Public.

ATTEMPTED DECEPTION BY CHINA.

The United States Government Never Has Advised Ministers to Leave Peking Under Chinese Escort—Neither Have Other Powers—Conger Reported.

Washington, Aug. 11.—In the light of a dispatch from Minister Conger, received by the state department through Minister Wu, the attitude of the administration is that there is but one thing to be done in the present circumstances, namely, to press on to the relief of the besieged garrison at Peking. This was made known after extended communications between Washington and the president at Canton. The Conger dispatch was received at the Chinese legation, and Minister Wu presented it to Acting Secretary Adee at the state department. It was in the American cipher and was found to be an identical note with that of the other ministers at Peking. (That of the French minister, M. Pichon, having already appeared), with the additional fact that seven members of the American guard had been killed and 16 wounded. The text of the message, as given out by the state department, is as follows:

"Secretary of State, Washington: 'The Tsung Li Yamen states to the diplomatic body that the various foreign governments have repeatedly asked, through the respective Chinese ministers, that we immediately depart from Peking under suitable escort. The yamen asks us to fix a date for our departure and to make the necessary arrangements to do so. Our reply is that we will seek instructions from our governments, and that in the absence of such instructions we cannot quit our posts.

"I must inform you that in order to insure our safe departure foreign troops only can safely escort us, and they must be in sufficient force to safely guard 800 foreigners, including 200 women and children, as well as 3,000 native Christians, who cannot be abandoned to certain massacre. We cannot accept a Chinese escort under any circumstances. All my colleagues are dispatching the foregoing to their respective governments.

The message is undated, but is supposed to have been sent on or after the 5th of August, when the imperial edict removing the inhibition against the ministers sending cipher telegrams was issued.

The discussion with the president led to the determination to reply to the Conger message at once, and accordingly Secretary Root and Acting Secretary Adee conferred on the terms of this reply. It was sent later. It was announced officially and positively that this message would not be made public, either in whole or in substance. It was made plain, however, that the message was sufficiently guarded as not to further increase the jeopardy of our minister in case the Chinese have access to the cipher.

The United States government never has entertained for a moment the idea of having the minister set out on the dangerous pilgrimage from Peking to the coast under Chinese protection.

This government has transmitted to the other powers interested the note to the Chinese government entrusted to Minister Wu on the night of the 8th. It has assurances from the other powers that they have not advised their representatives to accept Chinese escort from Peking.

Secretary of War Root said that there was no convincing evidence in possession of this government that any of the dispatches really reached Minister Conger.

LI HUNG CHANG

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Imperial Decree Names Him as Minister Plenipotentiary to Negotiate With the Powers.

Brussels, Aug. 11.—The foreign office has received the following message, signed "De Cartier" (E. De Cartier de archienne, first secretary of the Belgian legation at Peking):

"Shanghai, Aug. 10.—An Imperial decree names Li Hung Chang as minister plenipotentiary to negotiate peace."

The foreign office has also received from the Belgian minister at Peking a dispatch identical with that received yesterday by the French foreign office from the French minister at Peking, M. Pichon, telling of the attempts made by the Chinese to secure the foreign ministers' acceptance of a Chinese escort to Tien Tsin.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—It was reported that 12,000 Chinese troops are marching from the provinces of Hu-Han and Hu-Pei toward Peking and Tien Tsin.

CARNEGIE PRAISES

OUR CHINESE POLICY.

Said McKinley and Hay Must Be Given Credit—Our Position Among Other Nations.

London, Aug. 11.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie sent a statement to the Associated Press a statement regarding the situation in the Far East and the relation of the United States to future developments there, saying in part:

"The refusal of the United States to participate in the attack on the Taku forts makes the Washington government the natural mediator between China and the European powers, but America's position may easily be forfeited by agreeing to joint action. The release of Minister Conger and a demand for compensation for injuries incurred are duties incumbent upon the government; but the United States, in my opinion, should take no steps in conjunction with European powers.

"Great Britain is going to land troops to protect Shanghai because she looks upon the Yangtze valley as her special province. Russia keeps her chief forces in Manchuria, France is in another region, and Germany in a fourth. The first aim of each of these powers is to safeguard her prospective domains, and if the United States should be drawn into joint action with them, the Washington government may even find itself pledged to go forward into a campaign against China, which would be hopeless or may ultimately see the powers at war with each other. To enter upon a contest with 400,000,000 Chinamen might prove as disastrous to the United States as a war against a combination of European powers.

"Washington has been the only government which has been right with regard to the safety of the legations. From every point of view President McKinley and Secretary Hay must be given credit for having placed our country in a higher and better position than that occupied by any other."

CHINESE DEFEATED BY RUSSIANS.

Latter Took New Chang—Also Won Beyond Amur River.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—The Russian admiralty has received the following dispatch from Admiral Alexeff:

New Chang, Sunday, Aug. 5.—The Chinese town of New Chang, on the gulf of Liao Tung, was captured August 4, two warships taking part in the bombardment. The inhabitants were disarmed.

The Russian war office received the following dispatch from General Grodekoff:

Khabarovsk, Aug. 9.—General Rennekampf, August 7, overtook and defeated the enemy beyond the Amur river, capturing two guns. The battle was continued as far as Jgest. During the evening of August 7 the Chinese assumed the offensive on both our flanks. They were driven back with great loss. Rennekampf has been reinforced, with infantry, artillery and cavalry.

The railroad north of Tash Tsoo is in the hands of the Chinese, who destroyed the station at Hal Cheng August 6 and damaged the line. Hal Cheng was recaptured after an obstinate fight. The mountain floods interfere with the reconstruction of the line.

AGREEMENT FOR IDAHO.

Arrangement Between Populists and Democrats, Which Only Awaits Heitfeld's Approval.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A number of the leaders of the different parties opposing the present administration held a conference at Democratic headquarters. The principal subject of discussion was the entanglement in Idaho, and upon this a tentative agreement was reached. According to this understanding the Populists will withdraw their electoral candidates and return to the original basis of settlement agreed upon for that state before the various parties held their conventions.

The agreement was accepted by all present, but its promulgation was postponed until Senator Heitfeld can be consulted concerning it.

EXPRESS CAR ROBBED

On Pennsylvania Train Between Cincinnati and Columbus.

Found Dead, Having Been Shot In the Heart—Two Chambers of His Revolver Empty—The Safe Riddled of Many Valuables and Money.

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—A passenger train on the Pennsylvania lines was robbed at some point between here and Cincinnati, and Messenger Chas. Lane, of this city, killed. The robbery was not discovered until the train pulled into the station here and the messenger was found cold in death with his revolver, several chambers of which had been emptied, lying by his side. The contents of the safe had been stolen, the door having been blown open.

The train which was robbed is known as Panhandle No. 8. Its terminal here is the Union depot, where Express Messenger Lane was found dead in the car. He had been shot through the heart. An examination showed that all the valuables in his safe had been taken.

The murder and robbery is supposed to have taken place between Milford Center and Columbus, as no harm had befallen the express messenger when the train stopped at Milford. The messenger was alone. No one heard the shot or the explosion attending the blowing of the safe.

It is supposed the robbers jumped off the train as it slowed up coming into the Union depot.

The utmost mystery veils the affair. Lane was about 28 years old. The officials of the Adams Express company give no statements as to the probable amount of money secured by the robbers, but it is considerable. Later it was learned that the safe had not been blown, thought that was the first report. The robbers took the key from the messenger after he had been killed and left it sticking in the lock.

AKRON GIANT DEFEATED.

Fitzsimmons Knocked Him Out in the Sixth Round, After a Lively Fistic Contest.

New York, Aug. 11.—Bob Fitzsimmons, of Australia, but now an American citizen met Gus Ruhlin, the Akron giant, last night, before the Twentieth Century club, at Madison Square Garden, and won by knocking the Ohioan down and out in the sixth round.

The betting went both ways, and finally settled down even.

Fitzsimmons conceded 32 pounds to Ruhlin. From the word "go" the men started in with hurricane-like force. Both men were wild at times, but Fitzsimmons was always the quicker to steady himself. Ruhlin clinched a good deal, and for three or four rounds was the aggressor. He landed some hard straight lefts on Fitzsimmons' face and swung his right to the body and head with fearful force. Several of these blows staggered Bob, but none of them landed on the mark, as Fitz was too shifty. At times both missed swings with either hand, but many of Ruhlin's were dodged in the cleverest manner. Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to break ground, and in hot mix-ups the Ohio man was always the first to ease up and take refuge in a clinch. Time and again Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to the ropes, from which position Ruhlin got away rather clumsily, while Fitz was always very quick in his foot movements. When Ruhlin's nose began to bleed from a stiff left punch the sight of the blood seemed to have a deterrent effect on him and Fitz was quick to see this. On the first signs of weakness on Ruhlin's part Fitz began his attack on the body, and each blow which he landed there made Gus wince with pain. Fitz's handlers kept urging him to play for the solar plexus, but Fitz only tried it occasionally. In the fourth and fifth rounds both men showed plainly the effects of the stiff and rapid work they had done in the preceding rounds. Both were tired and leg weary, but Ruhlin showed up much the worse of the two. Just once Fitz touched the floor, when he slipped down from a clinch at the end of a round. In the sixth round Ruhlin was slow in coming to time, while Fitz jumped at his man. Fitz got around Ruhlin, and while the latter sent straight lefts for Fitz's head, Bob side-stepped safely and landed lefts on the body and right to the head. With a volley of lefts and rights to the head and neck and a fearful left on the solar plexus Fitz sent Ruhlin in a heap to the floor. Ruhlin, after taking nine seconds of the count, arose to his feet groggy from the effects of the blow. As soon as Ruhlin got up Fitz rushed, sending two lefts to the face and then shot his right with fearful force to the point of Ruhlin's jaw. Gus pitched forward as if struck with an ax and fell on his face to the floor, where he was counted out and had to be carried to his corner.

BARON RUSSELL DEAD.

Lord Chief Justice of England Died After an Operation.

London, Aug. 11.—Baron Russell, of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, is dead. Baron Russell had been ill for some time. An operation had been performed the day before he died, which the patient is reported to have passed through in good condition.

This operation, however, resulted in his death. It was performed by Dr. Treves. The baron had gastric catarrh. He was the first Catholic lord chief justice in 300 years.

BOTH BANDITS KILLED.

Train Robbers Surrounded Near Goodland Kansas—Two of posse Fatally Wounded, One Accidentally.

Goodland, Kan., Aug. 11.—Two men who on Sunday last robbed some of the passengers on a Union Pacific train in Colorado and killed W. J. Fay, a passenger, were surrounded in a ranch house near here. During the fight which followed one of the robbers was killed. Two of the posse, J. Briggs, owner of the Commercial hotel of Goodland, and George Cullins were severely and perhaps fatally wounded, the latter being accidentally shot by Sheriff Walker. Another of the pursuing party, name unknown, was wounded.

One of the robbers was killed while trying to escape. While the posse was removing Cullins the remaining robber made his way to a sod kitchen nearby and barricaded the door.

The men succeeded in crawling up to the building and threw lighted fuses on the roof. The place was destroyed and with it the robber.

Decided Against Mrs. Craven.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—A decision was rendered by Judge Troutt holds that Mrs. Nellie R. Craven is not the widow of Fair, and is not entitled to any allowance from his estate. Judge Troutt declared the pencil deeds and the alleged will, conveying to Mrs. Craven much of the late senator's estate, were forgeries.

Young Lady Drowned.

REPLIED TO CONGER.

State Department Kept Contents of Note From Public.

ATTEMPTED DECEPTION BY CHINA.

The United States Government Never Has Advised Ministers to Leave Peking Under Chinese Escort—Neither Have Other Powers—Conger Reported.

Washington, Aug. 11.—In the light of a dispatch from Minister Conger, received by the state department through Minister Wu, the attitude of the administration is that there is but one thing to be done in the present circumstances, namely, to press on to the relief of the besieged garrison at Peking. This was made known after extended communications between Washington and the president at Canton. The Conger dispatch was received at the Chinese legation, and Minister Wu presented it to Acting Secretary Adee at the state department. It was in the American cipher and was found to be an identical note with that of the other ministers at Peking. (That of the French minister, M. Pichon, having already appeared), with the additional fact that seven members of the American guard had been killed and 16 wounded. The text of the message, as given out by the state department, is as follows:

"Secretary of State, Washington: 'The Taung Li Yamen states to the diplomatic body that the various foreign governments have repeatedly asked, through the respective Chinese ministers, that we immediately depart from Peking under suitable escort. The yamen asks us to fix a date for our departure and to make the necessary arrangements to do so. Our reply is that we will seek instructions from our governments, and that in the absence of such instructions we cannot quit our posts.'

"I must inform you that in order to insure our safe departure foreign troops only can safely escort us, and they must be in sufficient force to safely guard 800 foreigners, including 200 women and children, as well as 3,000 native Christians, who cannot be abandoned to certain massacre. We cannot accept a Chinese escort under any circumstances. All my colleagues are dispatching the foregoing to their respective governments.

The message is undated, but is supposed to have been sent on or after the 5th of August, when the imperial edict removing the prohibition against the ministers sending cipher telegrams was issued.

The discussion with the president led to the determination to reply to the Conger message at once, and accordingly Secretary Root and Acting Secretary Adee conferred on the terms of this reply. It was sent later. It was announced officially and positively that this message would not be made public, either in whole or in substance. It was made plain, however, that the message was sufficiently guarded as not to further increase the jeopardy of our minister in case the Chinese have access to the cipher.

The United States government never has entertained for a moment the idea of having the minister set out on the dangerous pilgrimage from Peking to the coast under Chinese protection.

This government has transmitted to the other powers interested the note to the Chinese government entrusted to Minister Wu on the night of the 8th. It has assurances from the other powers that they have not advised their representatives to accept Chinese escort from Peking.

Secretary of War Root said that there was no convincing evidence in possession of this government that any of the dispatches really reached Minister Conger.

LI HUNG CHANG TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Imperial Decree Names Him as Minister Plenipotentiary to Negotiate With the Powers.

Brussels, Aug. 11.—The foreign office has received the following message, signed "De Cartier" (E. De Cartier de archienne, first secretary of the Belgian legation at Peking):

"Shanghai, Aug. 10.—An imperial decree names Li Hung Chang as minister plenipotentiary to negotiate peace."

The foreign office has also received from the Belgian minister at Peking a dispatch identical with that received yesterday by the French foreign office from the French minister at Peking, M. Pichon, telling of the attempts made by the Chinese to secure the foreign ministers' acceptance of a Chinese escort to Tien Tsin.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—It was reported that 12,000 Chinese troops are marching from the provinces of Hu-Han and Hu-Pei toward Peking and Tien Tsin.

CARNEGIE PRAISES OUR CHINESE POLICY.

Said McKinley and Hay Must Be Given Credit—Our Position Among Other Nations.

London, Aug. 11.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie sent a statement to the Associated Press a statement regarding the situation in the Far East and the relation of the United States to future developments there, saying in part:

"The refusal of the United States to participate in the attack on the Taku forts makes the Washington government the natural mediator between China and the European powers, but America's position may easily be forfeited by agreeing to joint action. The release of Minister Conger and a demand for compensation for injuries incurred are duties incumbent upon the government; but the United States, in my opinion, should take no steps in conjunction with European powers, take this view because each of those powers has separate interests at heart.

"Great Britain is going to land troops to protect Shanghai because she looks upon the Yangtze valley as her special province. Russia keeps her chief forces in Manchuria, France is in another region, and Germany in a fourth. The first aim of each of these powers is to safeguard her prospective domains, and if the United States should be drawn into joint action with them, the Washington government may even find itself pledged to go forward into a campaign against China, which would be hopeless or may ultimately see the powers at war with each other. To enter upon a contest with 400,000,000 Chinamen might prove as disastrous to the United States as a war against a combination of European powers.

"Washington has been the only government which has been right with regard to the safety of the legations. From every point of view President McKinley and Secretary Hay must be given credit for having placed our country in a higher and better position than that occupied by any other."

CHINESE DEFEATED BY RUSSIANS.

Latter Took New Chang—Also Won Beyond Amur River.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—The Russian admiralty has received the following dispatch from Admiral Alexeff:

New Chang, Sunday, Aug. 5.—The Chinese town of New Chang, on the gulf of Liao Tung, was captured August 4, two warships taking part in the bombardment. The inhabitants were disarmed.

The Russian war office received the following dispatch from General Grodekoff:

Khabarovsk, Aug. 9.—General Rennekampf, August 7, overtook and defeated the enemy beyond the Amur river, capturing two guns. The battle was continued as far as Jigast. During the evening of August 7 the Chinese assumed the offensive on both our flanks. They were driven back with great loss. Rennekampf has been reinforced, with infantry, artillery and cavalry.

The railroad north of Tashi Tsao is in the hands of the Chinese, who destroyed the station at Hai Cheng August 6 and damaged the line. Hai Cheng was recaptured after an obstinate fight. The mountain floods interfere with the reconstruction of the line.

AGREEMENT FOR IDAHO.

Arrangement Between Populists and Democrats, Which Only Awaits Heitfeld's Approval.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A number of the leaders of the different parties opposing the present administration held a conference at Democratic headquarters. The principal subject of discussion was the entanglement in Idaho, and upon this a tentative agreement was reached. According to this understanding the Populists will withdraw their electoral candidates and return to the original basis of settlement agreed upon for that state before the various parties held their conventions.

The agreement was accepted by all present, but its promulgation was postponed until Senator Heitfeld can be consulted concerning it.

EXPRESS CAR ROBBED

On Pennsylvania Train Between Cincinnati and Columbus.

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—A passenger train on the Pennsylvania lines was robbed at some point between here and Cincinnati, and Messenger Chas. Lane, of this city, killed. The robbery was not discovered until the train pulled into the station here and the messenger was found cold in death with his revolver, several chambers of which had been emptied, lying by his side. The contents of the safe had been stolen, the door having been blown open.

The train which was robbed is known as Panhandle No. 8. Its terminal here is the Union depot, where Express Messenger Lane was found dead in the car. He had been shot through the heart. An examination showed that all the valuables in his safe had been taken.

The murder and robbery is supposed to have taken place between Milford Center and Columbus, as no harm had befallen the express messenger when the train stopped at Milford. The messenger was alone. No one heard the shot or the explosion attending the blowing of the safe.

It is supposed the robbers jumped off the train as it slowed up coming into the Union depot.

The utmost mystery veils the affair. Lane was about 28 years old. The officials of the Adams Express company give no statements as to the probable amount of money secured by the robbers, but it is considerable. Later it was learned that the safe had not been blown, thought that was the first report. The robbers took the key from the messenger after he had been killed and left it sticking in the lock.

AKRON GIANT DEFEATED.

Fitzsimmons Knocked Him Out in the Sixth Round, After a Lively Fistic Contest.

New York, Aug. 11.—Bob Fitzsimmons, of Australia, but now an American citizen met Gus Ruhlin, the Akron giant, last night, before the Twentieth Century club, at Madison Square Garden, and won by knocking the Ohioan down and out in the sixth round.

The betting went both ways, and finally settled down even.

Fitzsimmons conceded 32 pounds to Ruhlin. From the word "go" the men started in with hurricane-like force. Both men were wild at times, but Fitzsimmons was always the quicker to steady himself. Ruhlin clinched a good deal, and for three or four rounds was the aggressor. He landed some hard straight lefts on Fitzsimmons' face and swung his right to the body and head with fearful force. Several of these blows staggered Bob, but none of them landed on the mark, as Fitz was too shifty. At times both missed swings with either hand, but many of Ruhlin's were dodged in the cleverest manner. Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to break ground, and in hot mix-ups the Ohio man was always the first to ease up and take refuge in a clinch. Time and again Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to the ropes, from which position Ruhlin got away rather clumsily, while Fitz was always very quick in his foot movements. When Ruhlin's nose began to bleed from a stiff left punch the sight of the blood seemed to have a deterrent effect on him and Fitz was quick to see this. On the first signs of weakness on Ruhlin's part Fitz began his attack on the body, and each blow which he landed there made Gus wince with pain. Fitz's handlers kept urging him to play for the solar plexus, but Fitz only tried it occasionally. In the fourth and fifth rounds both men showed plainly the effects of the stiff and rapid work they had done in the preceding rounds. Both were tired and leg weary, but Ruhlin showed up much the worse of the two. Just once Fitz touched the floor, when he slipped down from a clinch at the end of a round. In the sixth round Ruhlin was slow in coming to time, while Fitz jumped at his man. Fitz got around Ruhlin, and while the latter sent straight lefts for Fitz's head, Bob side-stepped safely and landed lefts on the body and right to the head. With a volley of lefts and rights to the head and neck and a fearful left on the solar plexus Fitz sent Ruhlin in a heap to the floor. Ruhlin, after taking nine seconds of the count arose to his feet groggy from the effects of the blow. As soon as Ruhlin got up Fitz rushed, sending two lefts to the face and then shot his right with fearful force to the point of Ruhlin's jaw. Gus pitched forward as if struck with an ax and fell on his face to the floor, where he was counted out and had to be carried to his corner.

BARON RUSSELL DEAD.

Lord Chief Justice of England Died After an Operation.

London, Aug. 11.—Baron Russell, of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, is dead. Baron Russell had been ill for some time. An operation had been performed the day before he died, which the patient is reported to have passed through in good condition.

This operation, however, resulted in his death. It was performed by Dr. Treves. The baron had gastric catarrh. He was the first Catholic lord chief justice in 300 years.

Charged With Ticket Scalping.

Atlantic City, Aug. 11.—George Emig, Charles O'Donnell and Andrew Thompson, who were arrested on the charge of ticket scalping, on complaint of Detective D. Miles Rigor, of the Pennsylvania railroad, have been held in bail for trial.

Drowned at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 11.—Chas. Redding, of Lancaster, Pa., aged about 25 years, an employee of the Union News company, was drowned while bathing in the surf.

A Bicyclist Killed.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 11.—Calvin Snyder, a Philadelphia and Reading railway telegraph operator at Paxinos, near here, while returning home from work on a bicycle, was killed by a passenger train.

REPLIED TO CONGER.

State Department Kept Contents of Note From Public.

ATTEMPTED DECEPTION BY CHINA.

The United States Government Never Has Advised Ministers to Leave Peking Under Chinese Escort—Neither Have Other Powers—Conger Reported.

Washington, Aug. 11.—In the light of a dispatch from Minister Conger, received by the state department through Minister Wu, the attitude of the administration is that there is but one thing to be done in the present circumstances, namely, to press on to the relief of the besieged garrison at Peking. This was made known after extended communications between Washington and the president at Canton. The Conger dispatch was received at the Chinese legation, and Minister Wu presented it to Acting Secretary Adee at the state department. It was in the American cipher and was found to be an identical note with that of the other ministers at Peking. (That of the French minister, M. Pichon, having already appeared), with the additional fact that seven members of the American guard had been killed and 16 wounded. The text of the message, as given out by the state department, is as follows:

"Secretary of State, Washington: 'The Tsung Li Yamen states to the diplomatic body that the various foreign governments have repeatedly asked, through the respective Chinese ministers, that we immediately depart from Peking under suitable escort. The yamen asks us to fix a date for our departure and to make the necessary arrangements to do so. Our reply is that we will seek instructions from our governments, and that in the absence of such instructions we cannot quit our posts.

"I must inform you that in order to insure our safe departure foreign troops only can safely escort us, and they must be in sufficient force to safely guard 800 foreigners, including 200 women and children, as well as 3,000 native Christians, who cannot be abandoned to certain massacre. We cannot accept a Chinese escort under any circumstances. All my colleagues are dispatching the foregoing to their respective governments.

The message is undated, but is supposed to have been sent on or after the 5th of August, when the imperial edict removing the inhibition against the ministers sending cipher telegrams was issued.

The discussion with the president led to the determination to reply to the Conger message at once, and accordingly Secretary Root and Acting Secretary Adee conferred on the terms of this reply. It was sent later. It was announced officially and positively that this message would not be made public, either in whole or in substance. It was made plain, however, that the message was sufficiently guarded as not to further increase the jeopardy of our minister in case the Chinese have access to the cipher.

The United States government never has entertained for a moment the idea of having the minister set out on the dangerous pilgrimage from Peking to the coast under Chinese protection.

This government has transmitted to the other powers interested the note to the Chinese government entrusted to Minister Wu on the night of the 8th. It has assurances from the other powers that they have not advised their representatives to accept Chinese escort from Peking.

Secretary of War Root said that there was no convincing evidence in possession of this government that any of the dispatches really reached Minister Conger.

LI HUNG CHANG

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Imperial Decree Names Him as Minister Plenipotentiary to Negotiate With the Powers.

Brussels, Aug. 11.—The foreign office has received the following message, signed "De Cartier" (E. De Cartier de archienne, first secretary of the Belgian legation at Peking):

"Shanghai, Aug. 10.—An imperial decree names Li Hung Chang as minister plenipotentiary to negotiate peace."

The foreign office has also received from the Belgian minister at Peking a dispatch identical with that received yesterday by the French foreign office from the French minister at Peking, M. Pichon, telling of the attempts made by the Chinese to secure the foreign ministers' acceptance of a Chinese escort to Tien Tsin.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—It was reported that 12,000 Chinese troops are marching from the provinces of Hu-Han and Hu-Pei toward Peking and Tien Tsin.

CARNEGIE PRAISES

OUR CHINESE POLICY.

Said McKinley and Hay Must Be Given Credit—Our Position Among Other Nations.

London, Aug. 11.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie sent a statement to the Associated Press a statement regarding the situation in the Far East and the relation of the United States to future developments there, saying in part:

"The refusal of the United States to participate in the attack on the Taku forts makes the Washington government the natural mediator between China and the European powers, but America's position may easily be forfeited by agreeing to joint action. The release of Minister Conger and a demand for compensation for injuries incurred are duties incumbent upon the government; but the United States, in my opinion, should take no steps in conjunction with European powers, take this view because each of those powers has separate interests at heart.

"Great Britain is going to land troops to protect Shanghai because she looks upon the Yangtze valley as her special province. Russia keeps her chief forces in Manchuria, France is in another region, and Germany in a fourth. The first aim of each of these powers is to safeguard her prospective domains, and if the United States should be drawn into joint action with them, the Washington government may even find itself pledged to go forward into a campaign against China, which would be hopeless or may ultimately see the powers at war with each other. To enter upon a contest with 400,000,000 Chinamen might prove as disastrous to the United States as a war against a combination of European powers.

"Washington has been the only government which has been right with regard to the safety of the legations. From every point of view President McKinley and Secretary Hay must be given credit for having placed our country in a higher and better position than that occupied by any other."

CHINESE DEFEATED BY RUSSIANS.

Latter Took New Chang—Also Won Beyond Amur River.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—The Russian admiralty has received the following dispatch from Admiral Alexeff:

New Chang, Sunday, Aug. 5.—The Chinese town of New Chang, on the gulf of Liao Tung, was captured August 4, two warships taking part in the bombardment. The inhabitants were disarmed.

The Russian war office received the following dispatch from General Grodekoff:

Khabarovsk, Aug. 9.—General Rennekampf, August 7, overtook and defeated the enemy beyond the Amur river, capturing two guns. The battle was continued as far as Jgest. During the evening of August 7 the Chinese assumed the offensive on both our flanks. They were driven back with great loss. Rennekampf has been reinforced, with infantry, artillery and cavalry.

The railroad north of Tashi Tsao is in the hands of the Chinese, who destroyed the station at Hai Cheng August 6 and damaged the line. Hai Cheng was recaptured after an obstinate fight. The mountain floods interfere with the reconstruction of the line.

AGREEMENT FOR IDAHO.

Arrangement Between Populists and Democrats, Which Only Awaits Heitfeld's Approval.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A number of the leaders of the different parties opposing the present administration held a conference at Democratic headquarters. The principal subject of discussion was the entanglement in Idaho, and upon this a tentative agreement was reached. According to this understanding the Populists will withdraw their electoral candidates and return to the original basis of settlement agreed upon for that state before the various parties held their conventions.

The agreement was accepted by all present, but its promulgation was postponed until Senator Heitfeld can be consulted concerning it.

EXPRESS CAR ROBBED

On Pennsylvania Train Between Cincinnati and Columbus.

Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—A passenger train on the Pennsylvania lines was robbed at some point between here and Cincinnati, and Messenger Chas. Lane, of this city, killed. The robbery was not discovered until the train pulled into the station here and the messenger was found cold in death with his revolver, several chambers of which had been emptied, lying by his side. The contents of the safe had been stolen, the door having been blown open.

The train which was robbed is known as Panhandle No. 8. Its terminal here is the Union depot, where Express Messenger Lane was found dead in the car. He had been shot through the heart. An examination showed that all the valuables in his safe had been taken.

The murder and robbery is supposed to have taken place between Milford Center and Columbus, as no harm had befallen the express messenger when the train stopped at Milford. The messenger was alone. No one heard the shot or the explosion attending the blowing of the safe.

It is supposed the robbers jumped off the train as it slowed up coming into the Union depot.

The utmost mystery veils the affair. Lane was about 28 years old. The officials of the Adams Express company give no statements as to the probable amount of money secured by the robbers, but it is considerable. Later it was learned that the safe had not been blown, thought that was the first report. The robbers took the key from the messenger after he had been killed and left it sticking in the lock.

AKRON GIANT DEFEATED.

Fitzsimmons Knocked Him Out in the Sixth Round, After a Lively Fistic Contest.

New York, Aug. 11.—Bob Fitzsimmons, of Australia, but now an American citizen met Gus Ruhlin, the Akron giant, last night, before the Twentieth Century club, at Madison Square Garden, and won by knocking the Ohioan down and out in the sixth round.

The betting went both ways, and finally settled down even.

Fitzsimmons conceded 32 pounds to Ruhlin. From the word "go" the men started in with hurricane-like force. Both men were wild at times, but Fitzsimmons was always the quicker to steady himself. Ruhlin clinched a good deal, and for three or four rounds was the aggressor. He landed some hard straight lefts on Fitzsimmons' face and swung his right to the body and head with fearful force. Several of these blows staggered Bob, but none of them landed on the mark, as Fitz was too shifty. At times both missed swings with either hand, but many of Ruhlin's were dodged in the cleverest manner. Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to break ground, and in hot mix-ups the Ohio man was always the first to ease up and take refuge in a clinch. Time and again Fitzsimmons forced Ruhlin to the ropes, from which position Ruhlin got away rather clumsily, while Fitz was always very quick in his foot movements. When Ruhlin's nose began to bleed from a stiff left punch the sight of the blood seemed to have a deterrent effect on him and Fitz was quick to see this. On the first signs of weakness on Ruhlin's part Fitz began his attack on the body, and each blow which he landed there made Gus wince with pain. Fitz's handlers kept urging him to play for the solar plexus, but Fitz only tried it occasionally. In the fourth and fifth rounds both men showed plainly the effects of the stiff and rapid work they had done in the preceding rounds. Both were tired and leg weary, but Ruhlin showed up much the worse of the two. Just once Fitz touched the floor, when he slipped down from a clinch at the end of a round. In the sixth round Ruhlin was slow in coming to time, while Fitz jumped at his man. Fitz got around Ruhlin, and while the latter sent straight lefts for Fitz's head, Bob side-stepped safely and landed lefts on the body and right to the head. With a volley of lefts and rights to the head and neck and a fearful left on the solar plexus Fitz sent Ruhlin in a heap to the floor. Ruhlin, after taking nine seconds of the count arose to his feet groggy from the effects of the blow. As soon as Ruhlin got up Fitz rushed, sending two lefts to the face and then shot his right with fearful force to the point of Ruhlin's jaw. Gus pitched forward as if struck with an ax and fell on his face to the floor, where he was counted out and had to be carried to his corner.

BARON RUSSELL DEAD.

Lord Chief Justice of England Died After an Operation.

London, Aug. 11.—Baron Russell, of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, is dead. Baron Russell had been ill for some time. An operation had been performed the day before he died, which the patient is reported to have passed through in good condition.

This operation, however, resulted in his death. It was performed by Dr. Treves. The baron had gastric catarrh. He was the first Catholic lord chief justice in 300 years.

Charged With Ticket Scalping.

Atlantic City, Aug. 11.—George Enig, Charles O'Donnell and Andrew Thompson, who were arrested on the charge of ticket scalping, on complaint of Detective D. Miles Rigor, of the Pennsylvania railroad, have been held in ball for trial.

Drowned at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 11.—Chas. Redding, of Lancaster, Pa., aged about 25 years, an employe of the Union News company, was drowned while bathing in the surf.

A Bicyclist Killed.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 11.—Calvin Snyder, a Philadelphia and Reading railway telegraph operator at Paxines, near here, while returning home from work on a bicycle, was killed by a passenger train.

BOTH BANDITS KILLED.

Train Robbers Surrounded Near Goodland Kansas—Two of posse Fatally Wounded, One Accidentally.

Goodland, Kan., Aug. 11.—Two men who on Sunday last robbed some of the passengers on a Union Pacific train in Colorado and killed W. J. Fay, a passenger, were surrounded in a ranch house near here. During the fight which followed one of the robbers was killed. Two of the posse, J. Briggs, owner of the Commercial hotel of Goodland, and George Cullins were severely and perhaps fatally wounded, the latter being accidentally shot by Sheriff Walker. Another of the pursuing party, name unknown, was wounded.

One of the robbers was killed while trying to escape. While the posse was removing Cullins the remaining robber made his way to a sod kitchen nearby and barricaded the door.

The men succeeded in crawling up to the building and threw lighted fuses on the roof. The place was destroyed and with it the robber.

Decided Against Mrs. Craven.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—A decision was rendered by Judge Troutt holds that Mrs. Nellie R. Craven is not the widow of Fair, and is not entitled to any allowance from his estate. Judge Troutt declared the pencil deeds and the alleged will, conveying to Mrs. Craven much of the late senator's estate, were forgeries.

Young Lady Drowned.

Toledo, Aug. 8.—Miss Flossie Swetland, a prominent society belle of Fredonia, N. Y., was drowned at Put-in-Bay while bathing.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

THOMAS C. THEAKER

Of Belmont seems to have limited his political ambitions to a single term in congress. He was a prominent and highly respected citizen of Belmont county, and was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Seventeenth district, made up of the counties of Belmont, Guernsey, Monroe and Noble. He was a merchant, and after retiring from congress was connected with the patent office. He was born in York, Pa., Feb. 1, 1812, and died at Oakland, Md., July 16, 1883.

JOHN HUTCHINS.

John Hutchins was born in Vienna, Trumbull county, Ohio, July 25, 1812, and died at Cleveland at four score. He was educated at the local schools, and studied law at Warren, Ohio, where he was admitted and entered upon the practice, and became a successful attorney, enjoying a wide and lucrative practice.

He had little inclination for politics. He was nominally a Whig, but strongly anti-slavery in his views, disagreeing in this respect from the majority of the leaders of his own party, and this fact doubtless had much to do in deterring him from active participation in state and national politics.

He was a man of excellent judgment and possessed a well balanced mind, which made his counsel and advice sought for in nearly all the affairs of life, not only by his neighbors in their private affairs, but by the leaders of his party in matters of state.

He served a single term in the Ohio house of representatives, in 1849-1850, but declined a second election, which was tendered him. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Twentieth district, composed of the counties of Trumbull, Ashtabula and Mahoning, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860. His services in congress were so satisfactory that he was tendered another election, but declined to follow his profession, which was more congenial to his tastes.

CHILTON A. WHITE.

Chilton A. White was one of the most prominent attorneys and a leading citizen of Brown county, and was born in that county in February, 1826, and lived at Georgetown until the close of the century in the practice of his profession. He held various offices of local importance in his town and county, and served as a soldier in the civil war.

In 1860 the Democratic nomination to congress came to him unexpectedly, and he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixth district, Brown, Adams, Clermont and Highland counties, and he was elected in 1862 from the same district to the Thirty-eighth congress, both times as a Democrat.

In 1896 he was the Democratic candidate for secretary of state, and was defeated by Charles Kinney, Republican, the vote standing 525,000 to 475,462.

RICHARD A. HARRISON.

Richard A. Harrison of Madison, and later of Franklin county, was born in Thirsk, England, April 8, 1824, and came to America in 1832, his parents locating at Springfield. He secured a thorough education, through his own efforts, and was admitted to the bar in 1846, and began the practice at London, Madison county.

He represented Madison county in the house of the Fifty-third general assembly, and the Eleventh Senatorial district, Madison, Clark and Champaign, in the Fifty-fourth. He was elected to the Thirty-second congress in 1861 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas Corwin from the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Madison, Warren, Clinton, Greene and Fayette.

He was appointed a member of the supreme court commission by Governor Rutherford B. Hayes, but declined to serve. From London he removed to Columbus, where he successfully practiced law during the remainder of the century. He was a man of great force of character and of a high order of ability.

SAMUEL SHELLABARGER

Samuel Shellabarger was, perhaps, the most distinguished native born citizen of Clark county during the nineteenth century. As a lawyer he had but few equals and no superiors at the bar of the state or in the national capital, where he spent the last quarter of the century in the practice of his profession.

He was born in Clark county, Dec. 10, 1817, and was largely educated in the common or public schools of the day. He was graduated from the Miami university at Oxford in 1841, after which he read law and was admitted to the bar in 1843. He was prosecuting attorney of Clark county and filled other local positions. He was elected to the house of representatives in the Fiftyth general assembly, but declined a re-election.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Eighth district, Clark, Champaign, Logan, Union and Delaware, but owing to the change of districts in 1862 failed of re-election to the Thirty-eighth. In 1864 he was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress from the Seventh district, Clark, Greene, Madison and Franklin counties, and was re-elected to the Fortieth in 1866, failed of re-election to the Forty-first in 1868, and was elected to the Forty-second in 1870, serving in all four terms.

He served in congress during what was known as the reconstruction period, and formulated the plan for provisional governments for the seceded states pending their rehabilitation. He was a Whig, and became a leading Republican upon the organization of that party. In politics he was broad-minded, although a strict partisan.

Under the administration of President Grant he was sent as minister to Portugal, and was afterward a member of the board of civil service commissioners. After his return from Portugal he located permanently in the practice of the law at the national capital.

WARREN P. NOBLE.

Among the prominent, distinguished and highly respected citizens of Seneca county was Warren P. Noble, an attorney, and for many years a Democratic leader of the state. He held many important local positions, and as trustee of a number of the state benevolent institutions. While taking great interest in public and political affairs, he was never, in any sense, a politician after office, but devoted his mind to the practice of his profession.

In 1846 he was elected to the house of the Forty-fifth general assembly and was re-elected to the Forty-sixth. As a legislator his work was so satisfactory to his constituents that they were anxious to continue him in the position, but he declined their offers. In 1880 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Sandusky, Tawa, Hardin, Marion, Wyandot and Crawford counties.

The apportionment of 1862 placed him in a new Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Erie, Sandusky, Ottawa, Crawford and Huron counties, and from 1862 he was re-elected to the Thirty-eighth congress. He declined a re-election and devoted the remainder of his life to the practice of his profession and the promotion of the various state benefits.

He also engaged in banking for a number of years, as well as in the practice of law. He was a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in Luzerne county of that state, June 14, 1820.

SAMUEL T. WORCESTER

Of Huron county was an attorney of considerable prominence, and a progressive and highly respected citizen. In 1848 he was elected a member of the senate from Huron and Erie counties in the Forty-seventh general assembly, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth. In 1861 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Thirteenth district, Huron, Erie, Morrow and Richland counties, to succeed John Sherman, who resigned to become United States senator. He was a Republican, and was born in Hollis, New Hampshire, Aug. 30, 1804.

JAMES R. MORRIS.

James P. Morris served two terms in congress, and was one of the prominent citizens of Monroe county in his day, and an attorney of good attainments. He represented Monroe county in the house of the Forty-seventh general assembly, and filled a number of local positions of trust and responsibility.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Seventeenth district, Monroe, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble counties. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh from the Fifteenth district, composed of Monroe, Morgan, Athens Washington and Meigs counties. He was born in Greene county, Pennsylvania, Jan. 10, 1820.

WILLIAM P. CUTLER.

William P. Cutler of Washington county was the grandson of Dr. Manasseh Cutler, one of the original settlers of Marietta, and a son of Judge Ephriam Cutler. He was born in Warren township, Washington county, July 12, 1812, and died in Marietta in 1889. He was a Whig of the anti-slavery type, and became a Republican when that party was organized.

He entered the Ohio university at Athens, but was compelled to leave college because of ill health before his graduation. He was elected to the house of the Forty-third general assembly in 1844, and re-elected to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth, and was speaker of the house during the session of the latter. He was a member of the constitutional convention in 1851.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixteenth district, Washington, Morgan and Muskingum counties, and served a single term. After leaving congress he became interested in railway enterprises, which engaged his attention during the remainder of his life.

ROBERT H. NUGEN.

Who was a citizen of Tuscarawas county, an attorney and a man of considerable local prominence, was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Fifteenth district, Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes county, in 1860. He served but a single term. He was a Democrat. He was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, in 1809.

ALBERT GALLATIN RIDDLE.

Albert Gallatin Riddle was born in Monson, Massachusetts, on the 28th of May, 1816. The succeeding year his father migrated to Ohio, and located in the vicinity of Cleveland. The youth largely educated himself, and was admitted to the bar in Cleveland in 1840, where he almost immediately rose to great distinction. He was prosecuting attorney of Geauga county, and also of Cuyahoga, and had an immense law practice at 40 years of age.

Against his own wishes he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress in 1860 from the Nineteenth district, Cuyahoga, Lake and Geauga, but declined a re-election, as he had no taste for political life. In 1863 he accepted the position of consul to Matanzas, but soon after resigned. He was the chief counsel in the prosecution of John H. Surratt, charged with conspiracy in the assassination of President Lincoln.

He was a brilliant literary writer, and the author of a number of entertaining books on various topics, and wrote a biography of Senator Benjamin F. Wade. He was a lecturer of great merit, and was in great demand on the platform. He spent the closing years of his life in the practice of law in Washington, D. C.

ALEXANDER LONG.

Alexander Long was one of the leading lawyers of the bar of Cincinnati, a noted orator and a man of strong convictions, and always had the courage to express them. He was a Jacksonian Democrat, a strict constructionist, and a believer in the reserved rights of the states.

He was born in Greenville, Mercer county, Pennsylvania, Dec. 24, 1816, and died in Cincinnati at nearly four score. He came of distinguished Revolutionary ancestry, and was a man of commanding presence and engaging manners. He was partly educated in Pennsylvania, and finished in the Farmers' college, Cincinnati, after which he studied law and was admitted to the bar.

He was one of the representatives from Hamilton county in the Forty-seventh general assembly in 1848-1849, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth in 1849. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-eighth congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county. Early in the second session of that congress he delivered a great speech in which he criticised the administration of President Lincoln, because of the method of conducting the war, in the severest terms. It roused a bitter partisan spirit among the supporters of the administration, and a resolution in favor of his expulsion from congress was introduced and fiercely debated for several days. Upon a call of the roll it lacked eleven votes of the constitutional majority, and he was not unseated.

He failed of a re-election and was succeeded by Rutherford B. Hayes, afterward elected president. After retiring from congress Mr. Long continued the practice of his profession at Cincinnati.

Curious Mexican Laws.

They have some very curious criminal laws in Mexico. For instance, it is twice as much of an offense to mutilate the face of a woman as that of a man. The law seems to be based on the idea that a woman's best possession is her beauty and that to mar it does her a great injury.

There is another curious law. If a person should be wounded in an encounter, the punishment to the offender is fixed by the number of days his victim has to stay in the hospital or under a doctor's care. A fine is fixed at 40 days in the way of a general division. If the injured man occupies more than 40 days in his recovery, the penalty doubles up.

Tommy's Lunch.

Uncle (who left his nephew "refreshing")—Well, Tommy, you see I'm back. Are you ready? What have I to pay, miss?

Waitress—Three buns, four sponge cakes, two sandwiches, one jelly, five tarts and—

Uncle—Good gracious, boy! Are you not ill?

Tommy—No, uncle, but I'm very thirsty.—London Tit-Bits.

Curious Mexican Laws.

They have some very curious criminal laws in Mexico. For instance, it is twice as much of an offense to mutilate the face of a woman as that of a man. The law seems to be based on the idea that a woman's best possession is her beauty and that to mar it does her a great injury.

There is another curious law. If a person should be wounded in an encounter, the punishment to the offender is fixed by the number of days his victim has to stay in the hospital or under a doctor's care. A fine is fixed at 40 days in the way of a general division. If the injured man occupies more than 40 days in his recovery, the penalty doubles up.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

THOMAS C. THEAKER

Of Belmont seems to have limited his political ambitions to a single term in congress. He was a prominent and highly respected citizen of Belmont county, and was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Seventeenth district, made up of the counties of Belmont, Guernsey, Monroe and Noble. He was a merchant, and after retiring from congress was connected with the patent office. He was born in York, Pa., Feb. 1, 1812, and died at Oakland, Md., July 16, 1883.

JOHN HUTCHINS.

John Hutchins was born in Vienna, Trumbull county, Ohio, July 25, 1812, and died at Cleveland at four score. He was educated at the local schools, and studied law at Warren, Ohio, where he was admitted and entered upon the practice, and became a successful attorney, enjoying a wide and lucrative practice.

He had little inclination for politics. He was nominally a Whig, but strongly anti-slavery in his views, disagreeing in this respect from the majority of the leaders of his own party, and this fact doubtless had much to do in deterring him from active participation in state and national politics.

He was a man of excellent judgment and possessed a well balanced mind, which made his counsel and advice sought for in nearly all the affairs of life, not only by his neighbors in their private affairs, but by the leaders of his party in matters of state.

He served a single term in the Ohio house of representatives, in 1849-1850, but declined a second election, which was tendered him. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Twentieth district, composed of the counties of Trumbull, Ashtabula and Mahoning, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860. His services in congress were so satisfactory that he was tendered another election, but declined to follow his profession, which was more congenial to his tastes.

CHILTON A. WHITE.

Chilton A. White was one of the most prominent attorneys and a leading citizen of Brown county, and was born in that county in February, 1826, and lived at Georgetown until the close of the century in the practice of his profession. He held various offices of local importance in his town and county, and served as a soldier in the civil war.

In 1860 the Democratic nomination to congress came to him unexpectedly, and he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixth district, Brown, Adams, Clermont and Highland counties, and he was elected in 1862 from the same district to the Thirty-eighth congress, both times as a Democrat.

In 1896 he was the Democratic candidate for secretary of state, and was defeated by Charles Kinney, Republican, the vote standing 525,000 to 475,462.

RICHARD A. HARRISON.

Richard A. Harrison of Madison, and later of Franklin county, was born in Thirsk, England, April 8, 1824, and came to America in 1832, his parents locating at Springfield. He secured a thorough education, through his own efforts, and was admitted to the bar in 1846, and began the practice at London, Madison county.

He represented Madison county in the house of the Fifty-third general assembly, and the Eleventh Senatorial district, Madison, Clark and Champaign, in the Fifty-fourth. He was elected to the Thirty-second congress in 1861 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas Corwin from the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Madison, Warren, Clinton, Greene and Fayette.

He was appointed a member of the supreme court commission by Governor Rutherford B. Hayes, but declined to serve. From London he removed to Columbus, where he successfully practiced law during the remainder of the century. He was a man of great force of character and of a high order of ability.

SAMUEL SHELLABARGER

Samuel Shellabarger was, perhaps, the most distinguished native born citizen of Clark county during the nineteenth century. As a lawyer he had but few equals and no superiors at the bar of the state or in the national capital, where he spent the last quarter of the century in the practice of his profession.

He was born in Clark county, Dec. 10, 1817, and was largely educated in the common or public schools of the day. He was graduated from the Miami university at Oxford in 1841, after which he read law and was admitted to the bar in 1843. He was prosecuting attorney of Clark county and filled other local positions. He was elected to the house of representatives in the fiftieth general assembly, but declined a re-election.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Eighth district, Clark, Champaign, Logan, Union and Delaware, but owing to the change of districts in 1862 failed of re-election to the Thirty-eighth. In 1864 he was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress from the Seventh district, Clark, Greene, Madison and Franklin counties, and was re-elected to the Fortieth in 1866, failed of re-election to the Forty-first in 1868, and was elected to the Forty-second in 1870, serving in all four terms.

He served in congress during what was known as the reconstruction period, and formulated the plan for provisional governments for the seceded states pending their rehabilitation. He was a Whig, and became a leading republican upon the organization of that party. In politics he was broadminded, although a strict partisan.

Under the administration of President Grant he was sent as minister to Portugal, and was afterward a member of the board of civil service commissioners. After his return from Portugal he located permanently in the office of the law at the national capital.

WARREN P. NOBLE.

Among the prominent, distinguished and highly respected citizens of Seneca county was Warren P. Noble, an attorney, and for many years a Democratic leader of the state. He held many important local positions, and trustee of a number of the state benevolent institutions. While taking an interest in public and political affairs, he was never, in any sense, a politician, but devoted his mind to the practice of his profession.

In 1846 he was elected to the house of the Forty-fifth general assembly, and was re-elected to the Forty-sixth. As a legislator his work was so satisfactory to his constituents that they were anxious to continue him in the position, but he declined their offers. In 1880 he was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress from the Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Sandusky, Warren, Hardin, Marion, Wyandot and Crawford counties.

The apportionment of 1862 placed him in a new Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Erie, Sandusky, Ottawa, Crawford and Huron counties, and from 1862 to 1866 he was re-elected to the Thirty-eighth congress. He declined a second term and devoted the remainder of his life to the practice of his profession and the promotion of the various state benefices.

He also engaged in banking for a number of years, as well as in the practice of law. He was a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in Luzerne county of that state, June 14, 1820.

SAMUEL T. WORCESTER

Of Huron county was an attorney of considerable prominence, and a progressive and highly respected citizen. In 1848 he was elected a member of the senate from Huron and Erie counties in the Forty-seventh general assembly, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth. In 1861 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Thirteenth district, Huron, Erie, Morrow and Richland counties, to succeed John Sherman, who resigned to become United States senator. He was a Republican, and was born in Hollis, New Hampshire, Aug. 30, 1804.

JAMES R. MORRIS.

James P. Morris served two terms in congress, and was one of the prominent citizens of Monroe county in his day, and an attorney of good attainments. He represented Monroe county in the house of the Forty-seventh general assembly, and filled a number of local positions of trust and responsibility.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Seventeenth district, Monroe, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble counties. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh from the Fifteenth district, composed of Monroe, Morgan, Athens Washington and Meigs counties. He was born in Greene county, Pennsylvania, Jan. 10, 1820.

WILLIAM P. CUTLER.

William P. Cutler of Washington county was the grandson of Dr. Manasseh Cutler, one of the original settlers of Marietta, and a son of Judge Ephriam Cutler. He was born in Warren township, Washington county, July 12, 1812, and died in Marietta in 1889. He was a Whig of the anti-slavery type, and became a Republican when that party was organized.

He entered the Ohio university at Athens, but was compelled to leave college because of ill health before his graduation. He was elected to the house of the Forty-third general assembly in 1844, and re-elected to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth, and was speaker of the house during the session of the latter. He was a member of the constitutional convention in 1851.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixteenth district, Washington, Morgan and Muskingum counties, and served a single term. After leaving congress he became interested in railway enterprises, which engaged his attention during the remainder of his life.

ROBERT H. NUGEN.

Who was a citizen of Tuscarawas county, an attorney and a man of considerable local prominence, was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Fifteenth district, Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes county, in 1860. He served but a single term. He was a Democrat. He was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, in 1809.

ALBERT GALLATIN RIDDLE.

Albert Gallatin Riddle was born in Monson, Massachusetts, on the 25th of May, 1816. The succeeding year his father migrated to Ohio, and located in the vicinity of Cleveland. The youth largely educated himself, and was admitted to the bar in Cleveland in 1840, where he almost immediately rose to great distinction. He was prosecuting attorney of Geauga county, and also of Cuyahoga, and had an immense law practice at 40 years of age.

Against his own wishes he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress in 1860 from the Nineteenth district, Cuyahoga, Lake and Geauga, but declined a re-election, as he had no taste for political life. In 1863 he accepted the position of consul to Matanzas, but soon after resigned. He was the chief counsel in the prosecution of John H. Surratt, charged with conspiracy in the assassination of President Lincoln.

He was a brilliant literary writer, and the author of a number of entertaining books on various topics, and wrote a biography of Senator Benjamin F. Wade. He was a lecturer of great merit, and was in great demand on the platform. He spent the closing years of his life in the practice of law in Washington, D. C.

ALEXANDER LONG.

Alexander Long was one of the leading lawyers of the bar of Cincinnati, a noted orator and a man of strong convictions, and always had the courage to express them. He was a Jacksonian Democrat, a strict constructionist, and a believer in the reserved rights of the states.

He was born in Greenville, Mercer county, Pennsylvania, Dec. 24, 1816, and died in Cincinnati at nearly four score. He came of distinguished Revolutionary ancestry, and was a man of commanding presence and engaging manners. He was partly educated in Pennsylvania, and finished in the Farmers' college, Cincinnati, after which he studied law and was admitted to the bar.

He was one of the representatives from Hamilton county in the Forty-seventh general assembly in 1848-1849, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth in 1849. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-eighth congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county. Early in the second session of that congress he delivered a great speech in which he criticised the administration of President Lincoln, because of the method of conducting the war, in the severest terms. It roused a bitter partisan spirit among the supporters of the administration, and a resolution in favor of his expulsion from congress was introduced and fiercely debated for several days. Upon a call of the roll it lacked eleven votes of the constitutional majority, and he was not unseated.

He failed of a re-election and was succeeded by Rutherford B. Hayes, afterward elected president. After retiring from congress Mr. Long continued the practice of his profession at Cincinnati.

PAINTED BIRDS.

This Lady Was Determined to Take Due Precautions Against Trickery.

Some time since there appeared in East Liverpool a bird fancier with a number of very beautiful birds, displaying all the colors of the rainbow upon their plumages. They were described as a new variety of singing birds, exquisite warblers, from a far distant foreign shore, the salesman asserting that they were strangers to this land and unused to captivity, and that they would render most charming service of song just as soon as they became acclimated and familiar with their cages. Many sales were effected by the clever fakir, who took his departure shortly afterward, stating that he would be back ere long with another consignment of birds. It is safe to bet that he will never come back again, as the dye gradually wore off the feathers of the foreign birds, and the disgusted purchasers found that they had paid a fancy price for sparrows.

A few days since another bird fancier made his appearance in East Liverpool. His birds are the Simon pure article, on which there is no discount. He sold a well known lady one of his choicest and most valuable pets, on a 30 days trial. Immediately after the purchase, her friends and acquaintances began to guy her by telling her that she was a victim of misplaced confidence, that her bird was a dyed one and sure to fade, until she became impressed with the idea that she had been victimized, took the bird to her private room and spent the best part of half a day in trying to wash out the colors which Dame Nature had indelibly planted on the feathers of the songster. And now the lady is constantly greeted with the remark: "Who dyed the bird?"

Stagnation In Stocks Slightly Relieved. More Gold Engaged For Export, Amounting to Over $3,000,000.

New York, Aug. 11.—The dead level of stagnation in stocks Thursday was slightly relieved by one or two features in Friday's market. The strength in special cases had a sympathetic effect in the narrow general market and earlier weakness was overcome, but the advance generally stopped short at about Thursday night's level. The exception was Sugar, which ruled above Thursday's level all day on operations by recent bull managers in the stock. There was no news to explain the movement, but the stock became fairly active in the latter part of the day, and rose 2 3/8 over Thursday night, at which price it closed. Brooklyn Transit was inclined to advance on renewed promises of the early appearance of the annual statement and rumors of changes in the control of the active management. There was continued buying of Chicago and Northwestern, after a slight preliminary reaction, the stock rising 1 5/8 over Thursday night, while the preferred gained 2 1/2 over the last sale on a single transaction. The buying order in the stock is said to be for investment account, based on the financial strength exhibited by the company in its annual statement. Efforts were made to check the downward movement in National Lead preferred by authorized denials of yesterday's rumors that a bond issue is imminent, but the stock slumped badly in the last hour, falling an extreme 4 1/2 points, while the common stock dropped 1 from the best. St. Paul was sold down a sharp fraction in the morning on the large decrease in gross earnings reported for the first week in August. The stock recovered and was unchanged at the close. The engagements of gold for export today, which amounted to $3,250,000, seemed to be without effect on sentiment, perhaps because the amount will not figure in today's bank statement.

There was nothing of importance in the bond market. Total sales, par value, $555,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, the 3s and old and new 4s declined 1/4 and the 5s 1/8 in the bid price.

A HELP TO BUSINESS.

Dun's Review Says Progress Has Been Toward a More Stable Position.

New York, Aug. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

Progress has been made toward a more stable position of business with a few more heavy contracts to hold the ground already gained; but for a proper interpretation of the week's results one must look beyond Wall street operations where, more than in any other quarter the vacation season is leaving its impress of inactivity. Speculation is cautious but investment holdings are being increased rather than diminished, and operators cannot see their hesitation on the ground of politics is echoed any more in general business circles than two months ago. Working forces are smaller and will soon be further reduced, probably for three weeks by the closing down of cotton mills in New England, which has been delayed longer than expected; but our strength is evidenced to the world by the oversubscription here of the new British loan of $10,000,000 on about 3 3/4 per cent basis, of which over half is allotted to American applicants.

London sales of 40,000 shares of stocks and some bonds and American purchases of the new foreign loan explain why gold goes out in the face of foreign commerce returns, which show for New York alone for the week an excess of exports over imports of more than $5,000,000. Exports for the week of $12,763,719 were more than double those for the same period of 1899 and for the year the gain is over $85,000,000, while imports gain only $20,000,000. The money market is untroubled by financing of the foreign loan, though the volume of new commercial loans is well sustained.

Wheat advanced about 1c, helped by poor foreign crop reports.

Corn gained nearly 2c, with the aid of dry weather reports, and is 8c above the price at this time last year.

In woolen goods reorders are not up to expectations, and some serges sell lower. Manufacturers show more interest in the wool market, taking fair quantities and seeking fewer concessions. The tone is firmer, though prices are unchanged.

Although the conference at Chicago recently failed to reduce the output of pig iron, individuals have acted independently, and on August 1 only 240 furnaces were in blast, with a weekly capacity of 244,426 tons, according to The Iron Age. This compares with a production of 283,413 July 1, by 284 furnaces, and 267,672 a year ago by 187 plants. Present figures are the lowest since March, 1899, when the capacity was 228,195 tons. Furnace stocks are 504,341 tons, against 421,038 July 1. Reduction of capacity is larger in proportion than the recent accumulation of stocks. A smaller output of pig, with steadily increasing exports and moderate activity in structural and finished material, promises to put it on a more satisfactory basis. Prices have steadied on the lower level in most directions, but in some products the struggle is still on between buyers and sellers. A serious feature is the wage controversy which extends over a wide territory. Production of coke decreases in proportion to the smaller output of iron.

Failures for the week, 177 in the United States, against 136 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Zeal.—Luke xvi, 1-13.

THE PARABLE.

The lesson contains the parable of "the unjust steward." A certain rich man had a steward who proved false to his trust. He called him to account for his stewardship and declared his intention of depriving him of his position. The steward was in great perplexity as to how to provide for his future. He decided finally to reduce the indebtedness of his lord's debtors, that when he lost his position they would receive him into their homes. The debtors were probably merchants who had given their notes or bonds for the amounts of their indebtedness. The steward called them together and gave them the privilege of reducing what they owed. The lord—the lord of the steward, not the Lord Jesus Christ—commended him for his prudence, but undoubtedly not for his dishonesty. The transaction was a shrewd one and yet a dishonest one. In a better and nobler sense Jesus then urges the disciples to use money and, indeed, all worldly advantages to make friends not of God's debtors, but of God's people, so that they may help them to heaven and when death comes receive them into everlasting habitations.

THE INTERPRETATION.

This is one of the most difficult parables of Christ to interpret. The different views held are many and varied. To state them even would be impossible. The best interpretation seems to be that this parable is to teach the disciples of Christ prudence and zeal in their service of God, and the lesson is taught by an illustration of the prudence and zeal of a man of the world in furthering his worldly interests. No one can imagine for a moment that Christ meant to commend the dishonesty of the steward. He simply meant to say, if a worldling used so much zeal and prudence for furthering his temporal interests, how much more prudent and zealous Christians should be in advancing their heavenly interests! This is intelligible. We can emulate a man's method of action, while we denounce its character. Christ therefore simply teaches us to use the same prudence and zeal in serving God as the children of the world do in serving the world.

THE APPLICATION.

This parable emphasizes zeal in the service of God and in the advancement of our heavenly interests. It is, alas, too often the case that God's children display less wisdom and zeal in serving Him than the children of the devil do in serving their father. The children of the world are indeed wiser, more prudent, than the children of light. But they should not be. As our aims, our purposes, are nobler and loftier, as the results at issue are more tremendously important, so our wisdom and our zeal should be more pronounced. This parable places a premium neither on ignorance nor on laziness, though many Christians seem to do so. Let us be zealous and prudent in our service of our God.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have the parable explained, followed by voluntary participation on the topic.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12. "Zeal"—Text, Luke xvi, 1-13.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much."

Have an eye to the future is one of the leading lessons taught by this parable. Use present opportunities to secure future well being is the trait of business life commended as wise by our Lord.

The parable itself is one of the most beautiful gems of literature. Its pictures of oriental life and custom are so true to nature and yet so simple in wording as to make them ever interesting for study. A rich man with a trusted manager of his estates. Stories of mismanagement and extravagance. No time wasted in investigations and trial, but summary dismissal in prospect on rendering account of matters. "What shall I do?" "I cannot dig and am ashamed to beg."

He decides to make those most liable to appear against him as accusers into firm friends, who will help him in his calamity. He can do this by showing himself as their friend now in relieving them of the excessive rent imposed on them as tenants of the rich man. It was a keen thing to do just at this time. If they were the ones who had been accusing him to the owner of the estates, it forever stopped their complaints. It won their friendship for the manager as one who seemed fair minded and considerate of their condition. It might also have an appearance in the accounts rendered, favorable to the steward in showing the income to be less than had been reported, and so the accusations of squandering the revenues to be false. It was a skillful move. It quieted the discontent of the tenants at excessive taxation and withdrew all ground of complaint, secured their loyalty to the owner and friendship for the manager, relieved the rich man from all controversy with his tenants, obtained better administration of affairs by this harmony and insured for himself the confidence of all parties with commendation of his employer and gratitude of his fellow dependents. "Make friends for yourself," of your opportunities.

How to Make Friends.—That is one of the problems raised by the lesson this week. Careful study of the parable will suggest several points of value in this inquiry.

First.—Realize your need and the value of friends.

Second.—Really desire friendship.

Third.—Be willing to be friendly.

Fourth.—Resolve to pay the price, and gain friends for yourself by first being a friend to others. Give first and you shall get later. "He that would have friends must show himself friendly."

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's for One Thing Only and East Liverpool is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They're for sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is East Liverpool evidence to prove it.

Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church alley, who is employed in the East Liverpool Pottery Co., says: "I had muscular rheumatism for three years in my back and kidneys. It caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back, and there was urinary weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred just before I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Not having much faith in medicines I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try them, but got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. pharmacy. They went direct to the kidneys and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time."

PAINTED BIRDS.

This Lady Was Determined to Take Due Precautions Against Trickery.

Some time since there appeared in East Liverpool a bird fancier with a number of very beautiful birds, displaying all the colors of the rainbow upon their plumages. They were described as a new variety of singing birds, exquisite warblers, from a far distant foreign shore, the salesman asserting that they were strangers to this land and unused to captivity, and that they would render most charming service of song just as soon as they became acclimated and familiar with their cages. Many sales were effected by the clever fakir, who took his departure shortly afterward, stating that he would be back ere long with another consignment of birds. It is safe to bet that he will never come back again, as the dye gradually wore off the feathers of the foreign birds, and the disgusted purchasers found that they had paid a fancy price for sparrows.

A few days since another bird fancier made his appearance in East Liverpool. His birds are the Simon pure article, on which there is no discount. He sold a well known lady one of his choicest and most valuable pets, on a 30 days trial. Immediately after the purchase, her friends and acquaintances began to guy her by telling her that she was a victim of misplaced confidence, that her bird was a dyed one and sure to fade, until she became impressed with the idea that she had been victimized, took the bird to her private room and spent the best part of half a day in trying to wash out the colors which Dame Nature had indelibly planted on the feathers of the songster. And now the lady is constantly greeted with the remark: "Who dyed the bird?"

Stagnation In Stocks Slightly Relieved. More Gold Engaged For Export, Amounting to Over $3,000,000.

New York, Aug. 11.—The dead level of stagnation in stocks Thursday was slightly relieved by one or two features in Friday's market. The strength in special cases had a sympathetic effect in the narrow general market and earlier weakness was overcome, but the advance generally stopped short at about Thursday night's level. The exception was sugar, which ruled above Thursday's level all day on operations by recent bull managers in the stock. There was no news to explain the movement, but the stock became fairly active in the latter part of the day, and rose 2 3-8 over Thursday night, at which price it closed. Brooklyn Transit was inclined to advance on renewed promises of the early appearance of the annual statement and rumors of changes in the control of the active management. There was continued buying of Chicago and Northwestern, after a slight preliminary reaction, the stock rising 1 5-8 over Thursday night, while the preferred gained 2 1-2 over the last sale on a single transaction. The buying order in the stock is said to be for investment account, based on the financial strength exhibited by the company in its annual statement. Efforts were made to check the downward movement in National Lead preferred by authorized denials of yesterday's rumors that a bond issue is imminent, but the stock slumped badly in the last hour, falling an extreme 4 1-2 points, while the common stock dropped 1 from the best. St. Paul was sold down a sharp fraction in the morning on the large decrease in gross earnings reported for the first week in August. The stock recovered and was unchanged at the close. The engagements of gold for export today, which amounted to $3,250,000, seemed to be without effect on sentiment, perhaps because the amount will not figure in today's bank statement. There was nothing of importance in the bond market. Total sales, par value, $555,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, the 3s and old and new 4s declined 1-4 and the 5s 1-8 in the bid price.

A HELP TO BUSINESS.

Dun's Review Says Progress Has Been Toward a More Stable Position.

New York, Aug. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

Progress has been made toward a more stable position of business with a few more heavy contracts to hold the ground already gained; but for a proper interpretation of the week's results one must look beyond Wall street operations where, more than in any other quarter the vacation season is leaving its impress of inactivity. Speculation is cautious but investment holdings are being increased rather than diminished, and operators cannot see their hesitation on the ground of politics is echoed any more in general business circles than two months ago. Working forces are smaller and will soon be further reduced, probably for three weeks by the closing down of cotton mills in New England, which has been delayed longer than expected; but our strength is evidenced to the world by the oversubscription here of the new British loan of $10,000,000 on about 3 3-4 per cent basis, of which over half is allotted to American applicants.

London sales of 40,000 shares of stocks and some bonds and American purchases of the new foreign loan explain why gold goes out in the face of foreign commerce returns, which show for New York alone for the week an excess of exports over imports of more than $5,000,000. Exports for the week of $12,763,719 were more than double those for the same period of 1899 and for the year the gain is over $85,000,000, while imports gain only $20,000,000. The money market is untroubled by financing of the foreign loan, though the volume of new commercial loans is well sustained.

Wheat advanced about 1c, helped by poor foreign crop reports.

Corn gained nearly 2c, with the aid of dry weather reports, and is 8c above the price at this time last year.

In woolen goods reorders are not up to expectations, and some serges sell lower. Manufacturers show more interest in the wool market, taking fair quantities and seeking fewer concessions. The tone is firmer, though prices are unchanged.

Although the conference at Chicago recently failed to reduce the output of pig iron, individuals have acted independently, and on August 1 only 240 furnaces were in blast, with a weekly capacity of 244,426 tons, according to The Iron Age. This compares with a production of 283,413 July 1, by 284 furnaces, and 267,672 a year ago by 187 plants. Present figures are the lowest since March, 1899, when the capacity was 228,195 tons. Furnace stocks are 504,341 tons, against 421,038 July 1. Reduction of capacity is larger in proportion than the recent accumulation of stocks. A smaller output of pig, with steadily increasing exports and moderate activity in structural and finished material, promises to put it on a more satisfactory basis. Prices have steadied on the lower level in most directions, but in some products the struggle is still on between buyers and sellers. A serious feature is the wage controversy which extends over a wide territory. Production of coke decreases in proportion to the smaller output of iron.

Failures for the week, 177 in the United States, against 136 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

THE PARABLE.

The lesson contains the parable of "the unjust steward." A certain rich man had a steward who proved false to his trust. He called him to account for his stewardship and declared his intention of depriving him of his position. The steward was in great perplexity as to how to provide for his future. He decided finally to reduce the indebtedness of his lord's debtors, that when he lost his position they would receive him into their homes. The debtors were probably merchants who had given their notes or bonds for the amounts of their indebtedness. The steward called them together and gave them the privilege of reducing what they owed. The lord—the lord of the steward, not the Lord Jesus Christ—commended him for his prudence, but undoubtedly not for his dishonesty. The transaction was a shrewd one and yet a dishonest one. In a better and nobler sense Jesus then urges the disciples to use money and, indeed, all worldly advantages to make friends not of God's debtors, but of God's people, so that they may help them to heaven and when death comes receive them into everlasting habitations.

THE INTERPRETATION.

This is one of the most difficult parables of Christ to interpret. The different views held are many and varied. To state them even would be impossible. The best interpretation seems to be that this parable is to teach the disciples of Christ prudence and zeal in their service of God, and the lesson is taught by an illustration of the prudence and zeal of a man of the world in furthering his worldly interests. No one can imagine for a moment that Christ meant to commend the dishonesty of the steward. He simply meant to say, if a worldling used so much zeal and prudence for furthering his temporal interests, how much more prudent and zealous Christians should be in advancing their heavenly interests! This is intelligible. We can emulate a man's method of action, while we denounce its character. Christ therefore simply teaches us to use the same prudence and zeal in serving God as the children of the world do in serving the world.

THE APPLICATION.

This parable emphasizes zeal in the service of God and in the advancement of our heavenly interests. It is, alas, too often the case that God's children display less wisdom and zeal in serving Him than the children of the devil do in serving their father. The children of the world are indeed wiser, more prudent, than the children of light. But they should not be. As our aims, our purposes, are nobler and loftier, as the results at issue are more tremendously important, so our wisdom and our zeal should be more pronounced. This parable places a premium neither on ignorance nor on laziness, though many Christians seem to do so. Let us be zealous and prudent in our service of our God.

In woolen goods reorders are not up to expectations, and some serges sell lower. Manufacturers show more interest in the wool market, taking fair quantities and seeking fewer concessions. The tone is firmer, though prices are unchanged.

Although the conference at Chicago recently failed to reduce the output of pig iron, individuals have acted independently, and on August 1 only 240 furnaces were in blast, with a weekly capacity of 244,426 tons, according to The Iron Age. This compares with a production of 283,413 July 1, by 284 furnaces, and 267,672 a year ago by 187 plants. Present figures are the lowest since March, 1899, when the capacity was 228,195 tons. Furnace stocks are 504,341 tons, against 421,038 July 1. Reduction of capacity is larger in proportion than the recent accumulation of stocks. A smaller output of pig, with steadily increasing exports and moderate activity in structural and finished material, promises to put it on a more satisfactory basis. Prices have steadied on the lower level in most directions, but in some products the struggle is still on between buyers and sellers. A serious feature is the wage controversy which extends over a wide territory. Production of coke decreases in proportion to the smaller output of iron.

Failures for the week, 177 in the United States, against 136 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

THE PARABLE.

The lesson contains the parable of "the unjust steward." A certain rich man had a steward who proved false to his trust. He called him to account for his stewardship and declared his intention of depriving him of his position. The steward was in great perplexity as to how to provide for his future. He decided finally to reduce the indebtedness of his lord's debtors, that when he lost his position they would receive him into their homes. The debtors were probably merchants who had given their notes or bonds for the amounts of their indebtedness. The steward called them together and gave them the privilege of reducing what they owed. The lord—the lord of the steward, not the Lord Jesus Christ—commended him for his prudence, but undoubtedly not for his dishonesty. The transaction was a shrewd one and yet a dishonest one. In a better and nobler sense Jesus then urges the disciples to use money and, indeed, all worldly advantages to make friends not of God's debtors, but of God's people, so that they may help them to heaven and when death comes receive them into everlasting habitations.

THE INTERPRETATION.

This is one of the most difficult parables of Christ to interpret. The different views held are many and varied. To state them even would be impossible. The best interpretation seems to be that this parable is to teach the disciples of Christ prudence and zeal in their service of God, and the lesson is taught by an illustration of the prudence and zeal of a man of the world in furthering his worldly interests. No one can imagine for a moment that Christ meant to commend the dishonesty of the steward. He simply meant to say, if a worldling used so much zeal and prudence for furthering his temporal interests, how much more prudent and zealous Christians should be in advancing their heavenly interests! This is intelligible. We can emulate a man's method of action, while we denounce its character. Christ therefore simply teaches us to use the same prudence and zeal in serving God as the children of the world do in serving the world.

THE APPLICATION.

This parable emphasizes zeal in the service of God and in the advancement of our heavenly interests. It is, alas, too often the case that God's children display less wisdom and zeal in serving Him than the children of the devil do in serving their father. The children of the world are indeed wiser, more prudent, than the children of light. But they should not be. As our aims, our purposes, are nobler and loftier, as the results at issue are more tremendously important, so our wisdom and our zeal should be more pronounced. This parable places a premium neither on ignorance nor on laziness, though many Christians seem to do so. Let us be zealous and prudent in our service of our God.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12, "Zeal"—Text, Luke xvi, 1-13.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much."

Have an eye to the future is one of the leading lessons taught by this parable. Use present opportunities to secure future well being is the trait of business life commended as wise by our Lord.

The parable itself is one of the most beautiful gems of literature. Its pictures of oriental life and custom are so true to nature and yet so simple in wording as to make them ever interesting for study. A rich man with a trusted manager of his estates. Stories of mismanagement and extravagance. No time wasted in investigations and trial, but summary dismissal in prospect on rendering account of matters. "What shall I do?" "I cannot dig and am ashamed to beg."

He decides to make those most liable to appear against him as accusers into firm friends, who will help him in his calamity. He can do this by showing himself as their friend now in relieving them of the excessive rent imposed on them as tenants of the rich man. It was a keen thing to do just at this time. If they were the ones who had been accusing him to the owner of the estates, it forever stopped their complaints. It won their friendship for the manager as one who seemed fair minded and considerate of their condition. It might also have an appearance in the accounts rendered, favorable to the steward in showing the income to be less than had been reported, and so the accusations of squandering the revenues to be false. It was a skillful move. It quieted the discontent of the tenants at excessive taxation and withdrew all ground of complaint, secured their loyalty to the owner and friendship for the manager, relieved the rich man from all controversy with his tenants, obtained better administration of affairs by this harmony and insured for himself the confidence of all parties with commendation of his employer and gratitude of his fellow dependents. "Make friends for yourself," of your opportunities.

How to Make Friends.—That is one of the problems raised by the lesson this week. Careful study of the parable will suggest several points of value in this inquiry.

First.—Realize your need and the value of friends.

Second.—Really desire friendship.

Third.—Be willing to be friendly.

Fourth.—Resolve to pay the price, and gain friends for yourself by first being a friend to others. Give first and you shall get later. "He that would have friends must show himself friendly."

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's for One Thing Only and East Liverpool is Learning
This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They're for sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is East Liverpool evidence to prove it.

Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church alley, who is employed in the East Liverpool Pottery Co., says: "I had muscular rheumatism for three years in my back and kidneys. It caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back, and there was urinary weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred just before I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Not having much faith left in medicines I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try them, but got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a bottle to the W. & W. pharmacy. They went direct to the kidneys and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time."

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

16TH YEAR. NO. 54.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1900.

AN INCREASE OF OVER A MILLION

Has Completed His Work

REPORT TO AUDITOR ADAMS

The City Will Derive No Benefit
From It Until the Year
1902.

THE CITY'S TOTAL VALUATION

Decennial Land Appraiser G. M. Adam has finished his work and sent his report to Auditor Adams. The report will show the new valuation to be $4,408,881, an increase of $1,820,421 over the valuation of 1890.

The auditor reported that the work of Appraiser Adam was satisfactory, but that he would take some time to look over it.

There is probably no person in the city except Mr. Adam who knows just what a big job it is to take the land appraisement of the city and he has done the work in a remarkably short time.

His field book was too heavy and unhandy to carry with him and he simply took a pass book with him, and would put down every piece of property as he went along, the name and size and in the evening he would transfer it to his field book.

After he had finished making the appraisement of 7,800 pieces of property in the city he was compelled to transfer the whole business to another book for use of the auditor.

In addition to this he had to notify 7,800 people of their valuation. He was expected to do the work in four months, but it was more than mortal man could do. Adam worked night and day at the job to get it finished, and did his work well.

The persons who have grievances will meet with the decennial board in the city soon, but the total figures of Mr. Adam will stand, as when the board take anything off one piece of property they must make it up on another.

The tax valuation of the city at present is $3,331,980, and with a levy of 12 mills it is not enough to pay the expenses incurred in running the city department.

The personal tax as shown by the assessor's books this year is $399,520, and this would make the total valuation at the present time $4,808,401.

But the council will not be able to get at the new valuation until 1902. The personal tax for this year is placed on the auditor's books this year and the city does not receive anything from it until 1901.

The decennial land appraisement for 1900 will not go on the auditor's books until next year and the city will receive nothing from it until February, 1902.

The personal taxes change every year, and after the assessors finish their work for 1901, what it shows then will be put on the auditor's books and the city will then begin to draw on the new valuation.

It is expected that the city will then show a total valuation of at least $5,000,000.

With the present levy of 12 mills

this would give the city $60,000 per year for running expenses. They now receive a little over $36,000 per year.

Special to News Review.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Russia has instructed her minister to leave Peking under safe escort.

Will be Resumed Tomorrow at the Young Men's Christian Association.

During the heated season the Sunday afternoon meetings for men at the Y. M. C. A. have been suspended. Tomorrow at 4 p. m., however, they are to be resumed. Dr. A. B. Marshall, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. J. A. Platts, former general secretary of the association, and others will speak. Professor Laughlin will lead the singing.

The religious work committee is making a strong effort to make the meetings during the coming season the best in the association's history, and all men are especially invited to attend this first service.

FINISHED GRADING.

The County Has Finished Its Part of the Grading on Cemetery Hill.

Contractor John Neeson has finished the county's part of the grading on Cemetery Hill, immediately in front of Riverview cemetery. It is understood that the grading to be done by the city, commencing at Wall street and ending at the cemetery gate, will be commenced by Contractors Rinehart and Ryan next Monday week, August 20.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

The Remains of the Late Mrs. Will Pope Will be Laid to Rest in Riverview.

The remains of Mrs. Will J. Pope arrived in the city this morning at 10:05 o'clock and can be viewed this evening between 7 and 9 o'clock at the Pope residence in Thompson place. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Taken to Massillon.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Sheriff Noragon this morning conveyed Thos. J. Crawford, of this city, to the state hospital at Massillon.

THEY PROMISED TO PAY

Yesterday afternoon Officer Morris made a raid on the small boys who have been bathing in the river near the flint mill. He got eight youngsters and they were badly frightened.

The boys have indulged in the practice of swimming in the vicinity of the Ohio shore for several months, arrayed in nature's garments, and recently have become a condemned nuisance.

They were arraigned before Mayor Davidson yesterday evening, who had a heart-to-heart talk with the juvenile offenders, and when he was through there was no misunderstanding as to his meaning.

The mayor assessed a fine of $5 60 on the whole bunch, which will be divided up among them. They promised to pay, and were allowed to go.

The Conference of the North Ohio
A. M. E. Church Will be Held Last of September.

The ministers and delegates of the North Ohio conference of the A. M. E. church will be held at Oxford, Butler county, O., during the last of the month of September, 1900. Rev. Benjamin Madison Carson, pastor of the local A. M. E. church, will then have served his full five years in the East Liverpool and Wellsville churches, and will not be returned to this charge, five years being the limit of consecutive service in this conference. Rev. Carson and family do not know where their lot will be cast. A great mass of white and colored citizens wish them well wherever they go. Pastor Carson has made thousands of warm friends in this section.

MUSTN'T INTERFERE.

Judge Hole Issued a Restraining Order at Salem Yesterday Afternoon.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—In Salem in chambers yesterday afternoon Judge Hole issued an order restricting Wm. G. Newhouse from interfering with the rights of Edward W. Powers and Charles C. Herriott.

The plaintiff operatives a mine of the Elkrun Mining company which underlies a 193-acre farm belonging to Newhouse.

The plaintiff's claim rights to drive over certain parts of the surface and brought suit against Newhouse when he interfered by putting up fences and gates.

Filed a Claim.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Dora Faloan filed a claim for $1,500 in probate court today against the estate of the late Wm. Faloan, of Salineville.

The amount is due her as administrator, and Judge Boone set the hearing for September 20.

BROUGHT THOMAS HINDLE TO THIS CITY.

An Effort is Being Made to Settle the Case And It May be Successful.

Constable Miller arrived in the city last evening from Coshocton having in custody Thomas Hindle, who is wanted for embezzlement.

The charge was made by H. J. Windram, for whom Hindle worked as a collector. He was living in Wellsville for some time and recently went to Coshocton, where he was arrested last Tuesday.

An effort is being made today by the parents of Hindle to settle the case, they offering to pay $125, which will cover the loss sustained by Windram.

This sum, together with the costs in the case, will amount to in the neighborhood of $145. Hindle's parents live in the country and were not aware of their son's trouble until his arrest.

An effort was made to rob Constable Miller of the credit of working up the case, but the only connection Constable Thorne, of Wellsville, had with the matter was that Miller placed a warrant in his hands for the arrest of the man when he was supposed to be in Wellsville.

AGAINST A SNAG.

What a Trenton Potter Says of the Situation in That City.

A Trenton correspondent of the Commoner and Glassworker has the following in regard to the pottery situation in that city:

"As was reported last week, the national committee were up against a snag, and as the days go by it now looks as though we will have no uniform list here, for it is a hard proposition that the national committee are tackling through the jiggermen not being in the Brotherhood and the manufacturers will have nothing to do with the list until all branches of the trade are satisfied to accept it."

"Those who have been working hard for the list to go into effect are getting almost discouraged at the way it now stands, for the members wont attend the meetings and face the problem which means their bread and butter, for it is just this, if the list don't go into effect now it will never go into effect, for it is now or never, for it puts to the test every man's unionism and now is the time to show whether there are as many true unionists in Trenton as boasted."

Paddy Struck Out.

Paddy Burns, the umbrella vender who was run in Tuesday, was turned loose this morning by Mayor Huxley and told to "hike" out of the city. He hit the rails, going towards Alliance. They may have him up there.—Salem Herald.

Paddy is well known in this city and should reach here before long.

He Can Sell It.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—John A. Greenmyer, administrator of the estate of Mary Jennings, was authorized to sell an interest in a lot in the Cherry Valley Iron company's addition to Leetonia.

PROFESSOR HALL HAS RESIGNED

He Goes to Mansfield to Accept
a Position as Instructor In Science.

Be Congratulated In Securing
His Services.

HAS A HOST OF FRIENDS

Prof. H. E. Hall, teacher of science in the East Liverpool high school, has resigned his position and will accept a similar position in the Mansfield school at a salary of $100 per month.

Prof. Hall has long been recognized as one of the best teachers in the city schools and they will lose a good instructor when they lose him.

He was liked by pupils and teachers, and has many warm friends in the city who will wish for him the success he so richly deserves. He had been science teacher here for two and a half years.

The Mansfield offer came to the professor unsolicited and is a worthy compliment to the ability of one who has labored so hard to bring his department of the city schools up to its present high standard.

He was always a hard worker, and in leaving the city will take with him the best feeling, and the people interested in the public schools of the city will unite in saying that Liverpool's loss is Mansfield's gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their future home in Mansfield.

THE VETERANS.

The Old Boys Had an Oh-Be-Joyful
Time in the Town of Rochester.

The members of Company F, 46th Pa. volunteers, had an oh-be-joyful reunion at the home of Comrade Thomas Matthews, Rochester, Pa., the other day. Comrade Noah Frederick states that there were 18 of the original members of the company present, and four recruits, or men who came into the regiment after its formation. The veterans enjoyed themselves as only old soldiers can, men who have camped together for years, borne the heat and burden of the march, and faced together the dangers of death and wounds on the battle field, and possibly shared the horrors of a southern prison pen.

The next reunion of the company will be held in East Liverpool, and the survivors anticipate a delightful time.

He Got Ten Days.

Lisbon, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Nathan McKee, of Salem, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery, was given 10 days in the county jail by Judge Boone.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Marietta Ebersole returned to her home in Carrollton this morning after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Manley, Sixth street.

FAMINE'S LEGACY TO THE WORLD

Half a Million of Orphans Are Urgently In Need of Immediate Help

DIRECT NEWS FROM INDIA

Prospects Are Now Somewhat
Brighter, as the Blessed Rain
Is Falling.

HELP UNTIL THE CROPS COME

News by cable from India's viceroy, the governor of Bombay, and other officials, from American missionaries and from newspaper correspondents, report a general rainfall in the famine-stricken districts and prospects brighter than at any time for the past two years.

This means that the gaunt, woeful, hideous figure of famine is being literally drowned. River beds, which for 24 months have been bared to the sky and baked by the sun till rock-hard, are now gradually softening into their natural muddiness. Streams are manifesting signs of life. The water in the few wells which were not drained by the long drought, are growing deeper, and fields, farms, meadows, grazing grounds, garden plots, in fact the whole parched earth, is giving promise of generous fertility, as in the years gone by.

But these are, after all, only signs and promises; which, while restoring hope to the hearts of the stricken millions, must not be taken as meaning that the famine is at an end. Famine may be dying, but she is not yet dead. She still stalks abroad in all the western and central provinces, and for at least three months to come she will continue her deadly work.

As the cause of the awful distress and desolation was lack of rain, it will take a very long, steady rain to restore the ground to a condition rich enough to yield. With the exception of a one-hour shower on July 20 of last year, the present rainfall is the first western India has known for four and twenty months. Hence, not until rain has fallen continuously for weeks and weeks, will the ground be sufficiently soaked and softened to assure the raising of a crop.

Moreover, millions of head of cattle; indeed, 90 per cent of all the cattle have died for want of fodder, and farmers will remain tied hand and foot till government supplies new live stock to replace the old, whose bones lie scattered the country over.

Therefore, desperate distress still exists. Utter desolation is still the lot of millions. If the government were now to withdraw its aid, shut up the relief works and poor houses, if American contributions were now to cease and missionaries to stop their work, ten million homeless, helpless people would be in imminent danger of starving to death.

Famine has written her will on the face of the land. She is leaving Christendom a legacy in the form of hundreds of thousands of homeless, helpless orphans.

The million men and women, who, after indescribable suffering, have succumbed since the famine began, not only to starvation, but to fever, plague and cholera besides, have left fully half a million fatherless and motherless children. When the government closes its relief work, its poor houses, sending millions of absolutely penniless people to their desolate homes to begin life's struggle over again, what is to become of the parentless, ownerless children. Who is to shelter them, clothe, feed, instruct them and fit them for lives of usefulness?

India, and I can truthfully write that of all the sad sights to be seen in the famine district, the most pitiable is the starving children. Not a few, but tens of thousands, are wandering along the highways, waifs of a desert country, living drift-chips on a shoreless sea. Their mothers and fathers have died of starvation, and now they have not a soul in the world to turn to, no kith, no kin, not a single heart among their own people to look after them.

It is in the rescue of these orphans, waifs from the highway of death itself, that the missionaries devote a large part of their working hours. Once inside a mission compound, the poor little starveling, if care and food have not come too late, is supported by funds sent to the missionaries by the American people.

Among the many starving orphan children gathered in from the fields by Dr. Taylor and his wife, missionaries at Ahmedabad, there came one little girl who insisted on entering the house. She came into the library, and after a brief look about lisped in her own tongue, "Please, may I die here?" and then threw herself down on the floor and went to sleep. It is gratifying to add that the long sleep and the hot milk afterward given to this child saved her from death and she was added to the fold of orphans in Dr. Taylor's care.

Even in the streets of Bombay there are hundreds of famine children wandering about. With sunken eyes, hollow cheeks and indented temples, with weary, weak, skeleton legs, they totter, by the dozen, in the footsteps of the European, crying "Salam, Sahib," which is their way of saying "Peace to you." Then slapping their hollow and naked stomachs to emphasize

He says: "Living expenses in India are light. The expense of caring for the 500,000 orphans, while stupendous in the aggregate, is yet easily within reach when considered one by one. It is not to be expected that any one person should assume the whole responsibility, yet every one can do something.

"Five cents for every working day, or 30 cents a week will clothe, feed, shelter and instruct a child, and there are but few people who cannot undertake the responsibility for one child, giving part themselves and collecting the balance from friends and neighbors. To every person so contributing will be given the name and address of the orphan for whom they have assumed responsibility, and once every three months they will receive an English letter from India, either from the child or from its teacher, reporting the progress it is making. I am sure the charitable, sympathetic people of our prosperous country will prove equal to the occasion and tens of thousands of famine waifs will be saved for lives of Christian influence.

"The Christian Herald, Bible House, New York, will receive all pledges and moneys for famine orphans, and will cable the money to India free of all expense, and weekly reports of pledges will be cabled at the same time. This course will enable the missionaries to take, promptly and quickly, as many children as there are pledges.

"If it be desired that the children be received in the orphanages of any particular denomination, and this wish is clearly expressed at the time when the pledge is made, it will be conscientiously respected; or if prefer-

their need of food, they continue their pious supplications, begging for enough food to keep them alive just another hour.

Sometimes a mother accosts one, a babe in her arms, trying its little best to get food from the dry, parched breast—and this mother also entreates you, saying: "Give us something to eat, and God will bless you with many children."

The group of waifs about her cling as if by instinct to her scant, ragged skirt, as if they felt that since this woman is mother to the babe she will act also as a kind mother to all who snuggle up to her.

Saving the children, in famine time, is one of the most encouraging phases of relief work, while to see children starve, to know that they, the helpless ones, cannot be helped, that they must die by inches for want of food, is a condition of affairs that wrings the heart.

Thousands of these orphans are now in the hands of American missionaries, having been plucked by them from the jaws of death, but they must soon be turned out to starve unless the missionaries receive the means to purchase food for them.

Whence is to come the money for the support of these helpless little ones? A plan for the solution of this problem has been formed by Dr.

ence for either sex is expressed, such preference will also be faithfully respected; and every pledge for one year, and every remittance, however small, towards orphan support will be promptly acknowledged in public print.

Declaring it Necessary to Improve Trentvale Street from Sheridan Avenue to the Stone Culvert at the Debee Bros' Plan of Lots.

RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring), that it is necessary (and its intention is hereby declared), to improve Trentvale street between the points above named, in the following manner:

The curbing shall be set along the east curbline from Sheridan Avenue to the north line of Peak's addition and a twelve (12) foot roadway shall be paved along next the curb, and from the north line of Peak's addition to the stone culvert twelve (12) feet of the west half of the roadway shall be paved.

The bricks used must be the best quality of roadway paving bricks set on edge. The work must be done in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer and under his supervision.

The cost and expense of the said improvement, except so much thereof as the law requires to be placed on the general tax list, with such further sums as Council may elect to collect by general taxation, shall be levied and assessed on the lots and lands abutting and bounding thereon and on such contiguous, adjacent, and other benefited lots and lands as Council shall specify in the ordinance authorizing the said improvement.

Bonds will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance.

The assessments therefor shall be made in five (5) annual installments and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed.

And the City Clerk is hereby instructed to have this resolution published, and the City Marshal is hereby authorized and instructed to serve the proper notices on the proper persons, and make return as required by law.

Passed this 1st day of August, 1900.

Business is Good.

Some good sized orders were received by several potteries the past week, and business is in a healthy condition for the first week in August.
Some salesmen are still at home, but next week will probably find all potteries fully represented, except two or three that are largely booked ahead.

VICTIMS OF THE HEAT.

Eleven Persons Died in New York City.

and There Were 20 Prostrations—One Death in Pittsburg and Seven Prostra-
tions.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—One death from
heat here; 7 prostrations.
New York, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons
died here from excessive heat. The infant mortality is very great. Horses
are perishing all over the city. The thermometer reached 94 degrees.

Milwaukee, Aug. 11.—Two deaths
from heat here.

Louisville, Aug. 11.—Several pro-
strations here.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Nine deaths and 15 prostrations resulted from the excessive heat here. The thermometer
went as high as 95 degrees.

CRISIS IN WAGE DISPUTE.

President Shaffer Issued a Call for a General Conference in the City of Detroit.

Pittsburg, Aug. 11.—The wage dispute between the Amalgamated association and the American Tinplate company and Republic Steel and Iron
company has reached a crisis. President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, issued a call for a meeting of the general conference committee at Detroit, Mich., August 14.

Although the constitution of the association has since 1894 provided for
the issuing of such a call, the general conference committee has never before been asked to settle a wage dispute. When asked why he had adopted this course of action, President
Shaffer replied that he was simply
enforcing the laws of the organization.

Mrs. John Davis and Others Testified in Powers' Trial.

Georgetown, Aug. 11.—Mrs. John
Davis, the wife of one of the men
charged with being an accessory to the Goebel assassination, was a witness
introduced by the defense in the trial
of former Secretary of State Powers.
Caleb Powers, she said, boarded at
her house. John Powers was also
there January 25. She testified that
the latter was ill in his room at her house that day and did not leave his room after 11 o'clock that day. This
was in contradiction of the testimony
of Robert Noakes, who told of an alleged conversation with John Powers,
in which he said the latter told him
"to stay close to the building as Goebel

Solomon Wilder, of Whitley county,
testified that Robert Noakes was at Corbin in March and asked him not
to tell anybody he was in town, as he might be arrested in connection with
the assassination conspiracy. Wilder
declared Noakes said he believed Caleb Powers innocent. According
to the witness, the members of the Noakes military company at Corbin,
instead of being desperadoes, as Noakes
had alleged, were mostly good men.

On cross-examination Wilder admitted that a number of Noakes' company had been tried for various crimes,
murder being the charge in several instances.

The defense then asked to be allowed to offer as evidence the act of the legislature appropriating $100,000 for
the apprehension and prosecution of
the assassin of William Goebel. No
objection was offered and the act
was made a part of the testimony.

Henry Hazelwood, a lawyer, of Laurel county, testified that he heard
James Sparks, of London, say that Goebel would be killed and Taylor
would pardon the man who did it;
out with a blank left to fill in the name of the man who did it. Sparks
testified for the defense several days
ago, and at the time denied having
made the statement.

Chief of Police Zach Lushy was called and contradicted the statement
of Rev. Stamper, who had denied making certain remarks in regard to the truth of Wharton Golden's statements. Other witnesses also testified.

Catholic Total Abstinence Union.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—The last
day's session of the convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Association
of American was held here. Hartford, Conn., was selected as the place
for the next annual meeting. The following officers were elected: President,

Rev. D. McGillicuddy, Worcester, Mass.;
first vice president, J. Washington
Logue, Philadelphia; second vice president, Hon. J. Walter Gibbons, Chicago; third vice president, Leonora M.
Lake, St. Louis; general treasurer,
Rev. John Curren, Scranton, Pa.;
general secretary, Rev. A. P. Doyle,
New York.

FORAKER'S OHIO DATE.

Speak September 8 in His Home State.

New York, Aug. 11.—The principal
visitor at Republican national headquarters was Hon. J. B. Foraker, of Ohio, who has been for some weeks
down in New Jersey. Senator Scott
arranged to have Senator Foraker
make a speech in Ohio on September 8, Baltimore on September 11 and at the convention of the state Republicans in New Jersey on September 13.
He will also make other speeches. Senator Foraker said:

"I have not been in Ohio for some time, but I have no doubt that the Republicans are making good progress
there."

Senator Scott said that William J.
Youngs, the secretary of Governor
Roosevelt, had submitted a tentative
plan for the governor's campaign
speaking, but that he had not looked
it over. No arrangement further than
that he would speak in Chicago on Labor day, and then go west, remaining until October 15, has been agreed on.

Members Say Stevenson Without Doubt
Will Be Nominated.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The executive committee of the Populist party has decided to call a meeting of the national committee of that party to be held in this city August 27.

The committee issued the following
address:

"The executive committee of the People's party takes this method of expressing to you its gratification on account of the absolute harmony which exists between the allied parties. There is no discord anywhere. On the contrary, a commendable spirit of rivalry
exists between the Democrats, Populists and Silver Republicans as to
which shall make the best record in support of our unrivaled leader, William J. Bryan.

"We have not felt authorized to fill
the vacancy on our ticket occasioned by
the declination of the Hon. Charles
A. Towne and called the national committee to meet in this city August 27.

"We trust there may be a full attendance of the committee. Meanwhile
rest assured that no discord will grow
out of the vice presidential situation."

Members of the committee stated
that Mr. Stevenson would without doubt be endorsed by the full committee when it meets.

It was decided that branch national headquarters be established in Chicago, the main national headquarters
to remain in Lincoln. Committeeman Eugene Smith, of Chicago, will be in
charge here.

CONVENTION DATE CHANGED.

Democratic Clubs' Meeting Postponed
Until October.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The coming convention of Democratic clubs, which was originally set for September 8 at Indianapolis, has been postponed until October 3. W. R. Hearst, president of the National association, announced
the postponement and explained that it was due to the desire of the national
leaders as well as the state leaders
of Indiana. Mr. Bryan urged that the date be changed and the suggestion
was approved by Adlai E. Stevenson.
Delegates to the number of 40,000 are expected to attend.

ARMOR PLATE BIDS OPENED.

in Same Bids for Half Each.

Washington, Aug. 11.—At the opening of bids at the navy department for
armor plate, the Bethlehem and Carnegie companies submitted identical
bids, each for about 18,200 tons of the 36,000 tons advertised for at $490 for
the thick armor and $411.20 for the thin.

The only other bid was from the Midvale steel company, which proposed to furnish the whole of the armor, without charging any royalties, on a sliding scale from $438 up. This company is unwilling to contract for less than 20,000 tons.

Anxiety For Census Operators.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Apprehension
is felt at the census office for the safety of Charles M. Robinson and
W. G. Pine-Coffin, the census supervisors for Alaska, who, with several
June 9 for St. Michael and have not since been heard from.

HEART FAILURE

Every day adds to the list of deaths
attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these deaths might be written down as due
to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs
of digestion and nutrition, that "weak"
heart, "weak" lungs, "weak" nerves and
other forms of physical deterioration
having their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep
each organ of the body well nourished,
is the man who is least liable to collapse
under the sudden weakness of some
vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently
cures diseases of the stomach and organs
of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

"I was under doctors' care for quite a time,"
writes Mr. J. F. Kidd, of Parnleysville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and
my suffering was very great. My pulse was weak, breath short and I had severe pains in
back, head and legs. Had palpitation of heart,
and for eleven months I was not able to do a
day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. R. V.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

TRUE MANHOOD.

Gauge it right and respect accordingly. Take a man for what he is really worth from the standpoint of genuine manhood—not for the land or dollars he possesses.

Guard of Pennsylvania, very many of the old veterans refusing to re-enlist. The veterans sadly miss the presence of their lamented commander, Colonel A. L. Hawkins; peace be to his memory.

PENNA. NATIONAL GUARD.

The annual encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania was not a flattering success, judging by the tone of the daily press of the country. Water supplies were entirely inadequate, the heat was simply unendurable, and discipline seems to have been at a low ebb.

HUMANITY LOVER.

Read very carefully the letter in today's issue from the pen of Louis Klopsch about India and her 500,000 orphans—little children whom you can keep from starving to death. God will bless every giver to this holy cause. Send in your contributions at once. Help until the harvest comes.

TRUE WOMANHOOD.

If she be brazen and vile, no matter what her condition in society, she should be branded accordingly. If she possess lands and money and still be vile, the branding should only be the deeper. A true and virtuous woman, high or low, is but a little lower than the angels, and her value is far greater than gold, pearls, rubies or diamonds. We doff our hat to a true woman and despise a vile one.

GRAND ARMY.

The veterans will own Chicago from August 25 to August 31, 1900. Grand preparations have been made for their reception, care and enjoyment. It will be an event long to be remembered by citizens and soldiers alike. East Liverpool will be well represented. A special car will be provided for our use, and if one car is not enough, two cars will be provided. Mack Anderson has already quite a number of excursionists.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Will you very kindly pardon seeming neglect on our part. We have not really neglected you; but, on the contrary, have been making herculean efforts to reach you every evening with the News Review. Our circulation has very much increased during the past three weeks, and some of our newsboys or carriers have failed to do their duty properly in the way of delivery. We have discharged some of our carriers and replaced them with trustworthy and reliable lads, and you will receive your paper regularly each evening just as soon as the carriers learn their routes. Some of the old carriers are still with us, and are very faithful and reliable, and the subscribers on their special routes have no cause for complaint. In the meantime, if you miss your paper, let us know of the failure, and we will send to you by special messenger. Our telephone number, on either line, is 122. Make settlement with the boys every week, and make settlements promptly, please, as the youngsters do not desire to carry subscribers who do not pay their bills. If you desire to pay in advance, by the three months, six months or year, you can do so and receive credit therefor. There are some persons who delight in defrauding the boys; who will take one daily for a while, refuse to pay, are cut off, and then work the same dodge on another daily. Of course none of the readers of the News Review would be guilty of such petty measures. The man or woman who would defraud a newsboy, and rob him of his earnings, is just a little too mean for anything on earth, but to be used as material for filling up the garbage wagon.

Pottery at Paris.

Green Book.

One of the opportunities for self-congratulation which the Paris exposition has offered to America this year is her indubitable success in the showing that the exhibitors of the United States have made in the department of art. The imitators hail from the Old World this time. Austria has made some success in following Tiffany glass, but Japan was unable to compete with Rookwood pottery. The production of new colors and glazes by the Long Island potteries and Trenton's decorated porcelain completed a collection of artistic offerings which put America away in the lead. One of the most gratifying features of the exhibit is its entire originality as compared with the decadence of the once famous European schools.

BRAZEN IMPUDENCE.

Superintendent Michael Whitaker So Characterizes the Acts of Telephone Workmen.

Editor News Review—The line of the Columbiana County Telephone company runs alongside the Calcutta road. In putting up the wires they, the workmen, have deemed it necessary to destroy a good many nice trees. One tree in particular, inside the cemetery grounds, on private property, was a source of comfort and pride to myself and family. It was not only a beauty from an ornamental standpoint, but was decidedly useful. I had a talk with the foreman of the construction force respecting this tree, and he gave me the assurance, on his word of honor, that it would not be touched or interfered with, as it was not necessary that it should be. Yesterday, in my absence, in defiance of this sacred promise, the workmen, vandalls that they are, went to work and utterly ruined this tree. If the promises of the officials of this company are in line with the promises of the foreman in question, the company deserves that failure shall meet it on every hand. The only policy that one should use with fellows like the said foreman and his force, is the shot gun policy.

Respectfully,
MICHAEL WHITAKER,
Superintendent Riverview cemetery.

HO FOR CASCADE PARK.

The Best Arranged and Most Enjoyable Picnic Grounds in All This Country.

HE WORKED DESTRUCTION.

A Sample of What a Fairly Healthy Cockatoo Can Do.

A light chain securely fastened on the cockatoo's leg promised safety, but he contrived to get within reach of my new curtains and rapidly devoured some half yard or so of a hand painted border, which was the pride of my heart. Then came an interval of calm and exemplary behavior which lulled me into a false security. Cockie seemed to have but one object in life, which was to pull out all his own feathers, and by evening the dining room often looked as though a white fowl had been plucked in it.

I consulted a bird doctor, but as Cockie's health was perfectly good and his diet all that could be recommended, it was supposed he only plucked himself for want of occupation, and firewood was recommended as a substitute. This answered very well, and he spent his leisure in gnawing sticks of deal—only when no one chanced to be in the room he used to unfasten the swivel of his chain, leave it dangling on the stand and descend in search of his playthings. When the fire had not been lighted, I often found half the coals pulled out of the grate and the firewood in splinters. At last, with warmer weather, both coals and wood were removed, so the next time Master Cockie found himself short of a job he set to work on the dining room chairs, first pulled out all their bright nails and next tore holes in the leather, through which he triumphantly dragged the stuffing.

At one time he went on a visit for some weeks and ate up everything within his reach in that friendly establishment. His "bag" for one afternoon consisted of a venerable fern and a large palm, some library books, newspapers, a pack of cards and an arm-chair. And yet every one adores him, and he is the spoiled child of more than one family.—Cornhill.

CHATEAUBRIAND A LA JARDINIERE.

Take a piece of good beef about five pounds in weight, tie into a neat shape with white cord, dip into pure olive oil and broil over a clear fire, turning every few seconds until all sides have been nicely browned. Place into a large steupan and half cover with boiling water. Simmer gently one and a half hours. When the meat is half done, add a large teaspoonful of salt and two small carrots, one onion and a turnip sliced and cut into straws. Cut two potatoes into squares and add to the beef 15 minutes before dishing. When done, place the meat on a platter and stand it in the oven. Rub together one tablespoonful of butter and three tablespoonfuls of flour. Stir into the boiling stew. Season to taste. Garnish the meat with some of the vegetables and serve.

Aloofness to Other Christians.

Not the least valuable result of the ecumenical conference will be a lifting up or at least a lightening of the fog of complacent ignorance with which too many among us have regarded the great bodies of evangelical Christians so far as they have found occasion to regard them at all. This attitude is unfortunate. Its unconscious superciliousness no doubt attracts to our churches some social aspirants, but it is a source of widespread and not unjustified irritation and alienation from the church. The attitude of aloofness that it has fostered has been a great injury to the work that we have to do in the Christian world. No one could have attended the sessions of this conference, no one could even have read attentively the reports of them, and still believe that the solar system revolved around the weather vane on his parish spire. It was plain that here there was neither Greek, barbarian nor Scythian, but Christ was all and in all.—Churchman.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

ONLY A JOKE.

A Statement Made in Jest Came Near Causing Trouble for an East End Man.

A careless remark sometimes creates great sensations. Such was the case of a remark made by an East Ender yesterday.

A man employed by A. G. Chaffin, who is erecting a number of new houses in East End, went to the pipe works to get a drink, and engaged in conversation with one of the employees about the sudden disappearance by fire of great cities and buildings.

The pipe works man, who is a well known oddity, remarked in conclusion that "Before 10 o'clock tomorrow all the houses in Chaffintown will be laid in ashes."

The carpenter returned to his building and repeated the remark to Mr. Chaffin, giving the impression that it was in the nature of a threat.

Mr. Chaffin was naturally anxious, especially as he did not know who was the author of the remark, and called on Officer Hamilton, who accompanied him to the pipe works and called for the man and requested that he go with them to the office of Squire Carmen.

The author of the innocent remark, which was causing so much excitement, declared that he was only joking, but realized that if any one hearing of the remark chose to set fire to the houses it would be likely to go hard with him. But Mr. Chaffin being satisfied, the case was dismissed without further proceedings.

In Locating Her Husband Got Off the Train Down Town and Was Taken to Wellsville.

A Slavic woman and baby arrived in East End last night, and as she could not speak a word of English, no one could find out who she was or to whom she belonged. She had a card written in her own language, the only part of which could be understood was American Clay Manufacturing company.

She was taken to the fire station and waited there a while, and no one coming for her, some kind neighbors kept them all night.

In the morning word was sent to the American Clay plant and it was found that the newcomer was the wife of George Kohert, who was employed there.

He has been building a new house and had sent for her to come to East End. But she was delayed a day and got off at the down town station instead of East End, and then got on a car going to Wellsville, but when she showed her card she was sent back to East End.

The couple seem to be delighted at their reunion. Mr. Kohert is a good steady worker and a good citizen, and has won the respect of people in East End.

After 28 Years.

Mrs. J. M. Azdell, of Mexico, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. J. Orr, of Pennsylvania avenue. Mrs. Azdell lived in East End 35 years ago and her only former visit to her old home was 28 years ago.

Secured a Situation.

Squire Carmen has been expecting his son Earl home, but received word that he had accepted a position with G. C. Sturgis, president of the board of regents for Morgantown university.

A Lost Horse.

A stray horse was found in Ed McKinnon's garden last night and Officer Hamilton was notified. He found that it belonged to Mr. Kidder and returned it to its owner.

Gave a Party.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

THOMAS C. THEAKER

Of Belmont seems to have limited his political ambitions to a single term in congress. He was a prominent and highly respected citizen of Belmont county, and was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Seventeenth district, made up of the counties of Belmont, Guernsey, Monroe and Noble. He was a merchant, and after retiring from congress was connected with the patent office. He was born in York, Pa., Feb. 1, 1812, and died at Oakland, Md., July 16, 1883.

JOHN HUTCHINS.

John Hutchins was born in Vienna, Trumbull county, Ohio, July 25, 1812, and died at Cleveland at four score. He was educated at the local schools, and studied law at Warren, Ohio, where he was admitted and entered upon the practice, and became a successful attorney, enjoying a wide and lucrative practice.

He had little inclination for politics. He was nominally a Whig, but strongly anti-slavery in his views, disagreeing in this respect from the majority of the leaders of his own party, and this fact doubtless had much to do in deterring him from active participation in state and national politics.

He was a man of excellent judgment and possessed a well balanced mind, which made his counsel and advice sought for in nearly all the affairs of life, not only by his neighbors in their private affairs, but by the leaders of his party in matters of state.

He served a single term in the Ohio house of representatives, in 1849-1850, but declined a second election, which was tendered him. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Twentieth district, composed of the counties of Trumbull, Ashtabula and Mahoning, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860. His services in congress were so satisfactory that he was tendered another election, but declined to follow his profession, which was more congenial to his tastes.

CHILTON A. WHITE.

Chilton A. White was one of the most prominent attorneys and a leading citizen of Brown county, and was born in that county in February, 1826, and lived at Georgetown until the close of the century in the practice of his profession. He held various offices of local importance in his town and county, and served as a soldier in the civil war.

In 1860 the Democratic nomination to congress came to him unexpectedly, and he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixth district, Brown, Adams, Clermont and Highland counties, and he was elected in 1862 from the same district to the Thirty-eighth congress, both times as a Democrat.

In 1896 he was the Democratic candidate for secretary of state, and was defeated by Charles Kinney, Republican, the vote standing 525,000 to 475,462.

RICHARD A. HARRISON.

Richard A. Harrison of Madison, and later of Franklin county, was born in Thirsk, England, April 8, 1824, and came to America in 1832, his parents locating at Springfield. He secured a thorough education, through his own efforts, and was admitted to the bar in 1846, and began the practice at London, Madison county.

He represented Madison county in the house of the Fifty-third general assembly, and the Eleventh Senatorial district, Madison, Clark and Champaign, in the Fifty-fourth. He was elected to the Thirty-second congress in 1861 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas Corwin from the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Madison, Warren, Clinton, Greene and Fayette.

He was appointed a member of the supreme court commission by Governor Rutherford B. Hayes, but declined to serve. From London he removed to Columbus, where he successfully practiced law during the remainder of the century. He was a man of great force of character and of a high order of ability.

SAMUEL SHELLABARGER

Samuel Shellabarger was, perhaps, the most distinguished native born citizen of Clark county during the nineteenth century. As a lawyer he had but few equals and no superiors at the bar of the state or in the national capital, where he spent the last quarter of the century in the practice of his profession.

He was born in Clark county, Dec. 10, 1817, and was largely educated in the common or public schools of the day. He was graduated from the Miami university at Oxford in 1841, after which he read law and was admitted to the bar in 1843. He was prosecuting attorney of Clark county and filled other local positions. He was elected to the house of representatives in the Fifteenth general assembly, but declined a re-election.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Eighth district, Clark, Champaign, Logan, Union and Delaware, but owing to the change of districts in 1862 failed of re-election to the Thirty-eighth. In 1864 he was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress from the Seventh district, Clark, Greene, Madison and Franklin counties, and was re-elected to the Fortieth in 1866, failed of re-election to the Forty-first in 1868, and was elected to the Forty-second in 1870, serving in all four terms.

He served in congress during what was known as the reconstruction period, and formulated the plan for provisional governments for the seceded states pending their rehabilitation. He was a Whig, and became a leading Republican upon the organization of that party. In politics he was broad-minded, although a strict partisan.

Under the administration of President Grant he was sent as minister to Portugal, and was afterward a member of the board of civil service commissioners. After his return from Portugal he located permanently in the practice of the law at the national capital.

WARREN P. NOBLE.

Among the prominent, distinguished and highly respected citizens of Seneca county was Warren P. Noble, an attorney, and for many years a Democratic leader of the state. He held many important local positions, and as trustee of a number of the state benevolent institutions. While taking great interest in public and political affairs, he was never, in any sense, a seeker after office, but devoted his mind to the practice of his profession.

In 1846 he was elected to the house of the Forty-fifth general assembly and was re-elected to the Forty-sixth. As a legislator his work was so satisfactory to his constituents that they were anxious to continue him in the position, but he declined their offers. In 1880 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Sandusky, Otawa, Hardin, Marion, Wyandot and Crawford counties.

The apportionment of 1862 placed him in a new Ninth district, composed of Seneca, Erie, Sandusky, Ottawa, Crawford and Huron counties, and from 1862 to 1866 he was re-elected to the Thirty-eighth congress. He declined a re-election and devoted the remainder of his life to the practice of his profession and the promotion of the various state benefices.

He also engaged in banking for a number of years, as well as in the practice of law. He was a native of Pennsylvania, having been born in Luzerne county of that state, June 14, 1820.

SAMUEL T. WORCESTER

Of Huron county was an attorney of considerable prominence, and a progressive and highly respected citizen. In 1848 he was elected a member of the senate from Huron and Erie counties in the Forty-seventh general assembly, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth. In 1861 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Thirteenth district, Huron, Erie, Morrow and Richland counties, to succeed John Sherman, who resigned to become United States senator. He was a Republican, and was born in Hollis, New Hampshire, Aug. 30, 1804.

JAMES R. MORRIS.

James P. Morris served two terms in congress, and was one of the prominent citizens of Monroe county in his day, and an attorney of good attainments. He represented Monroe county in the house of the Forty-seventh general assembly, and filled a number of local positions of trust and responsibility.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Seventeenth district, Monroe, Belmont, Guernsey and Noble counties. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh from the Fifteenth district, composed of Monroe, Morgan, Athens Washington and Meigs counties. He was born in Greene county, Pennsylvania, Jan. 10, 1820.

WILLIAM P. CUTLER.

William P. Cutler of Washington county was the grandson of Dr. Manasseh Cutler, one of the original settlers of Marietta, and a son of Judge Ephriam Cutler. He was born in Warren township, Washington county, July 12, 1812, and died in Marietta in 1889. He was a Whig of the anti-slavery type, and became a Republican when that party was organized.

He entered the Ohio university at Athens, but was compelled to leave college because of ill health before his graduation. He was elected to the house of the Forty-third general assembly in 1844, and re-elected to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth, and was speaker of the house during the session of the latter. He was a member of the constitutional convention in 1851.

In 1860 he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Sixteenth district, Washington, Morgan and Muskingum counties, and served a single term. After leaving congress he became interested in railway enterprises, which engaged his attention during the remainder of his life.

ROBERT H. NUGEN.

Who was a citizen of Tuscarawas county, an attorney and a man of considerable local prominence, was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress from the Fifteenth district, Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes county, in 1860. He served but a single term. He was a Democrat. He was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, in 1809.

ALBERT GALLATIN RIDDLE.

Albert Gallatin Riddle was born in Monson, Massachusetts, on the 28th of May, 1816. The succeeding year his father migrated to Ohio, and located in the vicinity of Cleveland. The youth largely educated himself, and was admitted to the bar in Cleveland in 1840, where he almost immediately rose to great distinction. He was prosecuting attorney of Geauga county, and also of Cuyahoga, and had an immense law practice at 40 years of age.

Against his own wishes he was elected to the Thirty-seventh congress in 1860 from the Nineteenth district, Cuyahoga, Lake and Geauga, but declined a re-election, as he had no taste for political life. In 1863 he accepted the position of consul to Matanzas, but soon after resigned. He was the chief counsel in the prosecution of John H. Surratt, charged with conspiracy in the assassination of President Lincoln.

He was a brilliant literary writer, and the author of a number of entertaining books on various topics, and wrote a biography of Senator Benjamin F. Wade. He was a lecturer of great merit, and was in great demand on the platform. He spent the closing years of his life in the practice of law in Washington, D. C.

ALEXANDER LONG.

Alexander Long was one of the leading lawyers of the bar of Cincinnati, a noted orator and a man of strong convictions, and always had the courage to express them. He was a Jacksonian Democrat, a strict constructionist, and a believer in the reserved rights of the states.

He was born in Greenville, Mercer county, Pennsylvania, Dec. 24, 1816, and died in Cincinnati at nearly four score. He came of distinguished Revolutionary ancestry, and was a man of commanding presence and engaging manners. He was partly educated in Pennsylvania, and finished in the Farmers' college, Cincinnati, after which he studied law and was admitted to the bar.

He was one of the representatives from Hamilton county in the Forty-seventh general assembly in 1848-1849, and was re-elected to the Forty-eighth in 1849. In 1862 he was elected to the Thirty-eighth congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county. Early in the second session of that congress he delivered a great speech in which he criticised the administration of President Lincoln, because of the method of conducting the war, in the severest terms. It roused a bitter partisan spirit among the supporters of the administration, and a resolution in favor of his expulsion from congress was introduced and fiercely debated for several days. Upon a call of the roll it lacked eleven votes of the constitutional majority, and he was not unseated.

He failed of a re-election and was succeeded by Rutherford B. Hayes, afterward elected president. After retiring from congress Mr. Long continued the practice of his profession at Cincinnati.

Curious Mexican Laws.

They have some very curious criminal laws in Mexico. For instance, it is twice as much of an offense to mutilate the face of a woman as that of a man. The law seems to be based on the idea that a woman's best possession is her beauty and that to mar it does her a great injury.

There is another curious law. If a person should be wounded in an encounter, the punishment to the offender is fixed by the number of days his victim has to stay in the hospital or under a doctor's care. A line is fixed at 40 days in the way of a general division. If the injured man occupies more than 40 days in his recovery, the penalty doubles up.

PAINTED BIRDS.

This Lady Was Determined to Take Due Precautions Against Trickery.

Some time since there appeared in East Liverpool a bird fancier with a number of very beautiful birds, displaying all the colors of the rainbow upon their plumages. They were described as a new variety of singing birds, exquisite warblers, from a far distant foreign shore, the salesman asserting that they were strangers to this land and unused to captivity, and that they would render most charming service of song just as soon as they became acclimated and familiar with their cages. Many sales were effected by the clever fakir, who took his departure shortly afterward, stating that he would be back ere long with another consignment of birds. It is safe to bet that he will never come back again, as the dye gradually wore off the feathers of the foreign birds, and the disgusted purchasers found that they had paid a fancy price for sparrows.

A few days since another bird fancier made his appearance in East Liverpool. His birds are the Simon pure article, on which there is no discount. He sold a well known lady one of his choicest and most valuable pets, on a 30 days trial. Immediately after the purchase, her friends and acquaintances began to guy her by telling her that she was a victim of misplaced confidence, that her bird was a dyed one and sure to fade, until she became impressed with the idea that she had been victimized, took the bird to her private room and spent the best part of half a day in trying to wash out the colors which Dame Nature had indelibly planted on the feathers of the songster. And now the lady is constantly greeted with the remark: "Who dyed the bird?"

Stagnation In Stocks Slightly Relieved.
More Gold Engaged For Export,
Amounting to Over $3,000,000.

New York, Aug. 11.—The dead level of stagnation in stocks Thursday was slightly relieved by one or two features in Friday's market. The strength in special cases had a sympathetic effect in the narrow general market and earlier weakness was overcome, but the advance generally stopped short at about Thursday night's level. The exception was Sugar, which ruled above Thursday's level all day on operations by recent bull managers in the stock. There was no news to explain the movement, but the stock became fairly active in the latter part of the day, and rose 2 3-8 over Thursday night, at which price it closed. Brooklyn Transit was inclined to advance on renewed promises of the early appearance of the annual statement and rumors of changes in the control of the active management. There was continued buying of Chicago and Northwestern, after a slight preliminary reaction, the stock rising 1 5-8 over Thursday night, while the preferred gained 2 1-2 over the last sale on a single transaction. The buying order in the stock is said to be for investment account, based on the financial strength exhibited by the company in its annual statement. Efforts were made to check the downward movement in National Lead preferred by authorized denials of yesterday's rumors that a bond issue is imminent, but the stock slumped badly in the last hour, falling an extreme 4 1-2 points, while the common stock dropped 1 from the best. St. Paul was sold down a sharp fraction in the morning on the large decrease in gross earnings reported for the first week in August. The stock recovered and was unchanged at the close. The engagements of gold for export today, which amounted to $3,250,000, seemed to be without effect on sentiment, perhaps because the amount will not figure in today's bank statement.

There was nothing of importance in the bond market. Total sales, par value, $555,000. U. S. refunding 2s, when issued, the 3s and old and new 4s declined 1-4 and the 5s 1-8 in the bid price.

A HELP TO BUSINESS.

Dun's Review Says Progress Has Been Toward a More Stable Position.

New York, Aug. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

Progress has been made toward a more stable position of business with a few more heavy contracts to hold the ground already gained; but for a proper interpretation of the week's results one must look beyond Wall street operations where, more than in any other quarter the vacation season is leaving its impress of inactivity. Speculation is cautious but investment holdings are being increased rather than diminished, and operators cannot see their hesitation on the ground of politics is echoed any more in general business circles than two months ago. Working forces are smaller and will soon be further reduced, probably for three weeks by the closing down of cotton mills in New England, which has been delayed longer than expected; but our strength is evidenced to the world by the oversubscription here of the new British loan of $10,000,000 on about 3 3-4 per cent basis, of which over half is allotted to American applicants.

London sales of 40,000 shares of stocks and some bonds and American purchases of the new foreign loan explain why gold goes out in the face of foreign commerce returns, which show for New York alone for the week an excess of exports over imports of more than $5,000,000. Exports for the week of $12,763,719 were more than double those for the same period of 1899 and for the year the gain is over $85,000,000, while imports gain only $20,000,000. The money market is untroubled by financing of the foreign loan, though the volume of new commercial loans is well sustained.

Wheat advanced about 1c, helped by poor foreign crop reports.

Corn gained nearly 2c, with the aid of dry weather reports, and is 8c above the price at this time last year.

In woolen goods reorders are not up to expectations, and some serges sell lower. Manufacturers show more interest in the wool market, taking fair quantities and seeking fewer concessions. The tone is firmer, though prices are unchanged.

Although the conference at Chicago recently failed to reduce the output of pig iron, individuals have acted independently, and on August 1 only 240 furnaces were in blast, with a weekly capacity of 244,426 tons, according to The Iron Age. This compares with a production of 283,413 July 1, by 284 furnaces, and 267,672 a year ago by 187 plants. Present figures are the lowest since March, 1899, when the capacity was 228,195 tons. Furnace stocks are 504,341 tons, against 421,038 July 1. Reduction of capacity is larger in proportion than the recent accumulation of stocks. A smaller output of pig, with steadily increasing exports and moderate activity in structural and finished material, promises to put it on a more satisfactory basis. Prices have steadied on the lower level in most directions, but in some products the struggle is still on between buyers and sellers. A serious feature is the wage controversy which extends over a wide territory. Production of coke decreases in proportion to the smaller output of iron.

Failures for the week, 177 in the United States, against 136 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.
Topic.—Zeal.—Luke xvi, 1-13.

THE PARABLE.

The lesson contains the parable of "the unjust steward." A certain rich man had a steward who proved false to his trust. He called him to account for his stewardship and declared his intention of depriving him of his position. The steward was in great perplexity as to how to provide for his future. He decided finally to reduce the indebtedness of his lord's debtors, that when he lost his position they would receive him into their homes. The debtors were probably merchants who had given their notes or bonds for the amounts of their indebtedness. The steward called them together and gave them the privilege of reducing what they owed. The lord—the lord of the steward, not the Lord Jesus Christ—commended him for his prudence, but undoubtedly not for his dishonesty. The transaction was a shrewd one and yet a dishonest one. In a better and nobler sense Jesus then urges the disciples to use money and, indeed, all worldly advantages to make friends not of God's debtors, but of God's people, so that they may help them to heaven and when death comes receive them everlasting habitations.

THE INTERPRETATION.

This is one of the most difficult parables of Christ to interpret. The different views held are many and varied. To state them even would be impossible. The best interpretation seems to be that this parable is to teach the disciples of Christ prudence and zeal in their service of God, and the lesson is taught by an illustration of the prudence and zeal of a man of the world in furthering his worldly interests. No one can imagine for a moment that Christ meant to commend the dishonesty of the steward. He simply meant to say, if a worldling used so much zeal and prudence for furthering his temporal interests, how much more prudent and zealous Christians should be in advancing their heavenly interests! This is intelligible. We can emulate a man's method of action, while we denounce its character. Christ therefore simply teaches us to use the same prudence and zeal in serving God as the children of the world do in serving the world.

THE APPLICATION.

This parable emphasizes zeal in the service of God and in the advancement of our heavenly interests. It is, alas, too often the case that God's children display less wisdom and zeal in serving Him than the children of the devil do in serving their father. The children of the world are indeed wiser, more prudent, than the children of light. But they should not be. As our aims, our purposes, are nobler and loftier, as the results at issue are more tremendously important, so our wisdom and our zeal should be more pronounced. This parable places a premium neither on ignorance nor on laziness, though many Christians seem to do so. Let us be zealous and prudent in our service of our God.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have the parable explained, followed by voluntary participation on the topic.

Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 12. "Zeal"—Text, Luke xvi, 1-13.

"He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much."
Have an eye to the future is one of the leading lessons taught by this parable. Use present opportunities to secure future well being is the trait of business life commended as wise by our Lord.

The parable itself is one of the most beautiful gems of literature. Its pictures of oriental life and custom are so true to nature and yet so simple in wording as to make them ever interesting for study. A rich man with a trusted manager of his estates. Stories of mismanagement and extravagance. No time wasted in investigations and trial, but summary dismissal in prospect on rendering account of matters. "What shall I do?" "I cannot dig and am ashamed to beg."

He decides to make those most liable to appear against him as accusers into firm friends, who will help him in his calamity. He can do this by showing himself as their friend now in relieving them of the excessive rent imposed on them as tenants of the rich man. It was a keen thing to do just at this time. If they were the ones who had been accusing him to the owner of the estates, it forever stopped their complaints. It won their friendship for the manager as one who seemed fair minded and considerate of their condition. It might also have an appearance in the accounts rendered, favorable to the steward in showing the income to be less than had been reported, and so the accusations of squandering the revenues to be false. It was a skillful move. It quieted the discontent of the tenants at excessive taxation and withdrew all ground of complaint, secured their loyalty to the owner and friendship for the manager, relieved the rich man from all controversy with his tenants, obtained better administration of affairs by this harmony and insured for himself the confidence of all parties with commendation of his employer and gratitude of his fellow dependents. "Make friends for yourself," of your opportunities.

How to Make Friends.—That is one of the problems raised by the lesson this week. Careful study of the parable will suggest several points of value in this inquiry.

First.—Realize your need and the value of friends.
Second.—Really desire friendship.
Third.—Be willing to be friendly.
Fourth.—Resolve to pay the price, and gain friends for yourself by first being a friend to others. Give first and you shall get later. "He that would have friends must show himself friendly."

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

East Liverpool is Learning
This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They're for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is East Liverpool evidence to prove it.

Mr. C. McLean, of 187 Church alley, who is employed in the East Liverpool Pottery Co., says: "I had muscular rheumatism for three years in my back and kidneys. It caused much pain and suffering, the last year being the worst. I had a steady aching pain in my kidneys; extreme weakness in the muscles of the back; could not rest at night except lying flat on my back, and there was urinary weakness accompanying it. Although I had many bad attacks and used many different medicines I never obtained any relief. The worst attack I ever had, and which completely used me up, occurred just before I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Not having much faith left in medicines I was rather skeptical when I was recommended to try them, but got so bad that I had to get something, so I went for a box to the W. & W. pharmacy. They went direct to the kidneys and acted on the very fountain head of all the trouble, relieving me in a very short time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
